PREFACE.

THE completion of this Second Volume affords me the opportunity of again thanking contributors for their continued interest in the Work. I wish especially to acknowledge my indebtedness to the Rev. Dr. THOMAS for his transcription of the Parish Register of St. John's, Nevis; to Mr. F. CUNDALL, Mrs. LEOPOLD SCARLETT, and Miss M. NEMBHARD for their articles on Jamaica; to Major PHIPPS and Lieut.-Colonel POOK for papers relating to St. Kitts; to Mr. N. DARNELL DAVIS and Mr. E. G. SINCKLER for papers relating to Barbados; and to Mr. A. ASPINALL for notes about the West Indies in general. The publication of lists of testators and of early settlers in this present Volume will, I hope, encourage and facilitate personal research.

For the next Volume I have prepared a descriptive list of West Indian book-plates, which will appear as a Supplement.

Mr. H. FARNHAM BURKE, Norroy King of Arms, has kindly offered to have abstracts made of the wills in the P.C.C. relating to St. Vincent and Dominica, and Mr. REGINALD GLENCROSS is already engaged on those of Nevis.

Mr. LOTHROP WITHINGTON is endeavouring to obtain from the Colonial Office a Report on all the Local Records.

A complete list of wills on record in Barbados has been promised by the Registrar. I wish also to point out to subscribers that the West India Committee is collecting together what will some day be a fine Library of books, MSS., and engravings relating to the West Indies.

The Swallow returned after five months hardship to Port Royal; the others were never heard of afterwards. Capt. Munroe, who had a commission from Jamaica, turned pirate, and took merchant ships bound thither. Capt. Ensom in the Swallow ketch was sent out to take him, who beat him, and Capt. Munroe was killed in the fight, his men brought in and hanged.

BOOKPLATE OF HAUGHTON JAMES, ESQ., OF JAMAICA.

ARMS.—Quarterly: 1 and 4, Azure, on a chevron between three lions passant-guardant Or, as many mullets of six points Sable [JAMES]; 2, Sable, a man Argent holding in the dexter hand a club [ ]; 3, Argent, three bars Sable [HAUGHTON].

CREST.—A stag statant. (Burke's "Armory" gives: A demi-lion rampant, etc.)

"Papworth," p. 498, gives: "Azure, on a chevron between three lions passant-guardant Ermine, as many escallops Gules [JAMES, Haughton Hall, Hanover, Jamaica]; quartering HAUGHTON, HALTON, FISHER, FOWLER, DRAYNER, and PARSON." These quarterings are all on the tomb at E. Barnet, co. Herts, of Sir Simon Haughton Clarke, Bart. (Cussans' "Herts," iii., 68.)

The will of Haughton James, Esq., of Jamaica was proved in 1744 (216, Anstis). He had been M. of A. for Hanover 1726—36, and is stated to have died in 1740 (Feurtado). Haughton James, son of Haughton James of Jamaica, Esq., matriculated from St. Mary Hall 9 May 1755, aged 17 (Foster). 1813, Oct. 23. In Piccadilly, Houghton James, esq. ("G.M.," 508). As the bookplate is in the Chippendale style it probably belonged to the last-named. Some twenty years ago I met a Mr. Haughton James in the R.M.S. "Moselle" going to Jamaica, so I hope the family may still be flourishing in its native island. [EDITOR.]

The Settlement of Nevis.*

The two following Chancery Suits from the P.R.O. (the references to which were sent me on 25 October 1899 by the late Mrs. V. T. C. Smith) give very valuable authentic information about the early planters of this island. There is no other such early list in existence. The skins are in good order, and the names, with two or three exceptions, quite legible:—

CHANCERY PROCEEDINGS, CHARLES I., L. 14, No. 48.

Litleton v. Glover. Bill of Complaint.

12 Nov. 1629. Humblie complaining your orator Thomas Litleton of London merchant that whereas about Sept. 1627 he and one Roger Glover citizen and vintner of London agreed to send into Turkey an adventure of goods costing 1600^{l} your orator having one third and Glover two thirds and later it was agreed that Glover was to bear the whole adventure and pay your orator 8 per cent. on all sums advanced and Glover now owes 900^{l} and 316^{l} for tobacco and about the month of January 1627 your orator did fit forth a ship called the ffaith to take her voyage to the Island of S^{t} Christofers† and thence to Newfoundland and the Straights of which Glover was to have a quarter share but by reason of tempestuous and contrarie winds and a great mortalitie amongst the men of the ship wherein the cheife comanders were lost and all the victualls spent the voyage to Newfoundland‡ and the Straights was lost to the damage of your orator in 600^{l} and upwards. Glover refuses to pay his share of the charges contrary to his promise and about May 1628 your orator set forth three sayle of shipps and consigned them upon an adventure to "one of the Caribee Islands" and Glover desired to have a share but having no ready money signed a bill for 250^{l} and they were bound to several persons for the freight and Glover and Francis Goare for their friends desired your orator to acknowledge a recognizance in the high court of chancery of 1500^{l} unto Glover which your orator did on the 6 May last and Glover has paid 1000^{l} in part payment and the adventure to Turkey is not paid and Glover hath prosecuted your orator in the Pettybag Office intending to lay the whole penalty of the recognizance on your orator contrary to equity your orator desires to be relieved of all engagements with Glover and prays for a subpena for Glover to appear in this court and answer this bill and put in all accounts and stay proceedings in the office of Petty bagg. [One skin.]

The Answer of Defendant.

It was agreed that complainant was to become free of the Turkey Company before the goods arrived at Leaghorne. Defendant shipped for Aleppo goods of 1700^{l} value mostly bought at his own credit and Complainant refused to take up his freedom thinking to lay the loss of the adventure on this defendant if the same had miscarried—denies claims and contests the figures. It is true that in January 1627 plaintif set out the ship the Faith for S^{t} Christophers and then to Newfoundland and the Straights and agreed for a quarter share but the ship spent so much time in England before she departed for S^{t} Christophers and staid so long at S^{t} Christophers to discharge her lading that she lost her voyage for Newfoundland and could not arrive there time enough to lade with fish but returned to England and the agreement was given up by the complainant to this defendant to be cancelled. It is true that in May 1618 [sic] three ships were consigned to one of the Caribbee Islands and defendant adventured 250^{l} and they Answer of Defendant.

Sworn 3 May 1631. The Answer of Rowland Bullock, one of the Defendants. It is true he bought goods for 16l and is willing to pay. [One skin.]

* To save space I have omitted the shillings and pence from the sums.
† At the latter part of the suit he is called Robert.
‡ Sic, but it might be meant for Singar or Seagar.

Including the Governor there are eighty names of planters in the above suit, and as probably every man in the island got something out of the ships the number of settlers did not much exceed eighty. The ship Hopewell is probably the same vessel which was fitted out by Ralph Merifield of London, merchant, commanded by Captain John Jeaffreson, and arrived on 18 March 1624 at St. Christophers. Captain Tho. Warner returned in her to England, and obtained on 13 September 1625 a royal commission reciting his discovery of St. Christophers, Mevis, etc., and appointing him Governor. On 3 May 1626 Ralph Merrifield petitioned the Privy Council that he had set forth two ships (not named) under Captain Warner and Captain Smith to the "new plantation in the Caribbee Islands." On 2 July 1627 James Earl of Carlisle obtained a grant of all the Caribbees. On 26 October 1627 the Hopewell, under Captain William Smith, with stores from the Earl of Carlile, arrived at St. Christophers. Captain John Smith,* writing in 1629, said: "In this little Ile of Mevis, more than twenty yeares agoe, I have remained a good time together, to wod, and water and refresh my men." This proves that the island was used by navigators before 1609, though no permanent settlement was effected. He then says: "The last yeare, 1628, Master Littleton, with some others got a Pattent of the Earle of Carlile, to plant the Ile called the Barbados, thirty leagues Northward of Saint Christophers; which .... they called Dulcina, but when they came there, they found it such a barren rocke, they left it .... At last .... they came to Mevis, a little Ile by Saint Christophers: where they seated themselves, well furnished with all necessaries, being about the number of an hundred, and since increased to an hundred and fifty persons whereof many were old planters of Saint Christophers, especially Master Anthony Hinton [sic], and Master Edward Thompson."

Capt. Smith's narrative is probably accurate. The island Barbados is an error for Barbudos or Barbuda, an uncultivated island north of Antigua. Mevis or Nevis is styled Dulcina in certain wills, but I never heard of the name being applied to Barbuda. If Littleton's three ships sailed for Nevis in May 1628, and on arrival found Governor Hilton and over 80 planters there, how did the latter go out?

In the British Museum [Egerton MS. 2395] is preserved the narrative of John Hilton in 1675, storekeeper and chief gunner of Nevis. He stated that his brother Anthony Hilton, born in the Bishoprick of Durham, being sent by the merchants of Barnstaple to Virginia, touched at St. Christophers, and waited on Capt. Tho. Warner the Governor. On returning from Virginia he landed in Ireland, where he met Capt. Vallett and other gentlemen who provided him with a ship and men, intending to grow tobacco at St. Christophers, as being a better place than Virginia. These men were the first that settled on the Windward side of St. Christopher, but being attacked by the Indians, removed to the Leeward side. [Hilton's name appears as a witness to the Treaty between the English and French, dated 13 May 1627.] Having raised a crop he returned with several planters to London, and having sold their tobacco for 20^{d} per lb.† they were sent by M^{r} Littleton merchant, who had a commission from the Earl of Carlile, to settle Barbados (Barbuda), but not liking it, nor Antegoa nor Mountserrat, came down to Nevis y^{e} 22 of July 1628, where they settled.

John Hilton said that Jacob Lake "came over with us at y^{e} first settling." This date of 22 July 1628 would be about the time of arrival of the three ships Littleton despatched according to the Chancery Suit in the previous May; but the two accounts do not agree, and further evidence is desired. On 8 Nov. 1628 Hilton was one of those who signed another French Treaty. On 7 Sept. 1629 both St. Christopher and Nevis were plundered by the Spaniards, who took away as hostages for Nevis, Capt. John Coolle of London, Capt. John Husbands, a Yorkshireman, Robert Merreton of London, and John Hilton, brother of Capt. Anthony Hilton and author of the narrative.

* "The Travels of Captain John Smith," vol. ii.

† Capt. John Smith stated that the freight was 3d. and the customs 9d.

Capt. Anthony Hilton, who had left for England in Aug. 1629, returned with more men and resettled the island. During his absence the people had elected Mr. James Russell as their temporary governor. Mr. Tho. Littleton then went over with the object of recovering debts, to whom Hilton then resigned the government and removed to "Tartodus," where he shortly after died. John Hilton, after 5 years imprisonment in Spain, returned in a Dutch ship to Nevis, where he met Governor Tho. Littleton, Mr. Procter the factor, Mr. Luke Stoakes, and Capt. Sparrowe. Governor L. afterwards followed John Hilton to Tartodus and died on the voyage. The list of Governors as given by John Hilton is as follows, and to this I have added notes:—

1. Capt. Anthony Hilton, who arrived 22 July 1628. Governor again after Russell, and until 1635.
2. Capt. Wm. Vallett, his Deputy during Hilton's absence in England. He fled in Sept. 1629.
3. James Russell, chosen by the people pro tem.
4. Thos. Litleton, the Founder of the colony. Succeeded Hilton about 1635, d. 1636.
5. Luke Stoakes, his Deputy.
6. Capt. Tho. Sparrow, put in by Sir Tho. Warner about 1636.
7. Major Henry Hunckes 1638-9. Governor of Barbados 1640.
8. Capt. Jenings
9. Jenkin Lloyde
10. Parson John Meakem

   } These three not named in the Colonial Calendar, so they were probably appointed locally.

11. Capt. John Kettleby, put in by Sir Tho. Warner about 1642.
12. Capt. Jacob Lake. In 1639 fought the Spaniards [d. Oct. 1649. See ante, I., 190.]
13. Luke Stoakes 1649 [? same as No. 5]; removed to Jamaica in 1656 with 1200 persons.
14. Col. James Russell 1659-1671 [same as No. 3]; d. 15 Nov. 1674 at Bristol.
15. Col. Randall Russell 1671-1678, brother of James; d. before 29 June 1678.

Thos. Littleton's pedigree was recorded in the Visitation of Surrey of 1662-8. He was the son of Sir Edward Littleton of Henley, co. Salop, Kt., by Mary, dau. of Sir Edward Lloyd, and is entered as "Thomas Littleton of ye Citty of London, Governor of Mevis, Ar.," and by his wife Eliz., dau. of John Abeels of London, merchant, left an only son and heir, James.

Petition of Capt. Wm. Digby 1 July 1652, reciting that ten years since Sir Tho. Warner assigned to him a plantation in Nevis formerly confirmed to Warner by "Capt. Kettleby then Governor of Nevis," . . . the present Governor, Capt. Luke Stoakes, has taken away about 280 acres. The patent, dated 11 Dec. 1648, was from the Earl of Carlisle for "240 geometrical paces* of land." (Colonial Cal., p. 385.)

Certificate dated 10 Feb. (?) 1659 of Capt. Edward Blagge, that he has traded for more than 20 years with Nevis, "especially in the time of Capt. Jacob Lake's government, and knows him to have been a person of integrity and very prudent and laborious in the discharge of his trust. Col. Luke Stokes, who succeeded him, behaved faithfully and was attached to the Commonwealth; and Major Russell, the present Governor, is very fit for his present employment and beloved amongst his neighbours." His brother Mr. Lake, a minister, arrived in the Carlile on 7 Sept. 1629 at the same time as the Spanish Fleet, but that vessel escaped by cutting her cables. (Colonial Cal., p. 474.) Capt. Lake commanded a company at that time, but his men ran away. A Capt. William Vallett was in 1661 a Member of the first Council of Jamaica.

In conclusion, it appears probable that settlers from St. Christopher passed over the straits called The Narrows, only two miles wide, to Nevis, or else that the Earl of Carlile sent them over from London in one of his ships, and that Capt. Anthony Hilton was appointed their first Governor by him or Thomas Warner. At that time men were pouring into St. Christopher, and the surplus population would naturally overflow to the neighbouring islands. Capt. John Smith said that in 1628 there had been 30 sail of English, French, and Dutch ships at St. Christophers. Littleton's adventure was a purely commercial undertaking.

There is a good map of Nevis in Bellin's "Description geographique des Isles Antilles," p. 117, pub. in 1758. A small one inset in the map of St. Kitts appeared in Edwards' W.I. of 1818. A small one included in the map of St. Kitts was published by Norie in 1819, which is now reproduced as a plate.

Rev. John Featley of St. Kitts.*

The following genealogy has been copied from a small book $4\frac{6}{16}$ by $2\frac{7}{16}$ inches, containing 796 closely written pages, mostly on devotional subjects, but of which the genealogy or "Vita Auctoris" occupies pp. 159 to 174. The whole Book of Psalms, pp. 101, printed in 1654, is also bound in between pp. 764 and 765.

In the "D.N.B." are a long notice of Dr. Daniel Featley and a short one of John his nephew. The former was born at Charlton-upon-Otmoor, Oxfordshire, on 15 March 1582, the second son of John Fairclough (cook to Lawrence Humphrey, president of Magdalen College, Oxford) by his wife Marian Thrift, and after taking his degrees at Oxford became successively Rector of Lambeth, 1618-19, and Acton, 1626-7. He was a noted controversialist, preacher, and voluminous writer, and died at Chelsea College 17 April 1645.

John, his nephew, was son of John Fairclough, the elder brother of Daniel. His early life to 1656 is described in his MS. book. After the Restoration he was appointed, 29 June 1660, Chaplain Extraordinary to the King, and on 13 August to the Precentorship of Lincoln. In 1661 he was again Rector of Langar, and later Vicar of Edwinstowe, co. Notts; created, 7 June, D.D. Oxon.; died at Lincoln in 1666, and was buried in the Cathedral. He published a Sermon to the West India Company, 4to, London, 1629, also various sermons and devotional mauuals, besides the Life of his uncle in 1660.

John Warner of St. Christopher, in his will dated 20 January 1629 [72, Scroope] says: "To Mr. Bolton minister & preacher the £5 he oweth me & to M^r^ John Feately, minister, 30 lbs. of tobacco." College of Arms 5 Dec^r^ 1791.

Dear Sir

Agreeably to what was settled at our last convention I inclose several Mem^a^ for enquiries to be made in Jamaica. Your brother will be able to point out a proper person for the collections, viz. one that is active intelligent & industrious, that "no stone may be left unturned" that may afford us an inscription or any part of the information we are in pursuit of. Certainly there must be in Jamaica† who can give an Account of the connections, either from memory or tradition, of most of the families of Rank in Jamaica, & those of a Lieut^t^ Governor‡ most assuredly will not remain a blank in such chronological memories.

If you had obtained anything relative to the Will of the Lieut^t^ Governor you w^d^ have communicated the same to

Dear Sir, Yours faithfully devoted

I. Heard G.

P.S.—I am still pursuing the fishery for Herrings§—to tell the truth I have been hitherto very unlucky.

Pym Letters.*

The following West Indian letters were among the papers formerly belonging to John Pym, M.P., at the seat of his descendant, Philip Pleydell Bouverie at Brymore, co. Somerset. They were extracted by H. C. Maxwell Lyte, and printed in the 10th Report, Part VI., of the Historical MSS. Commission.

1633, October 28. Island of Providence. William Rudyerd, William Rons (sic), Roger Floyde and John Brigham, to [John Pym ?].

We do not find here the largeness that was reported. At the arrival of the Seaflower, the country was furnished with an overplus of provisions for the number of persons here. In October following, the new-comers had a crop of corn. In that month eighty more came from Bermuda, who had been dissuaded by the seamen from bringing provisions. Although they had felled a great quantity of ground by the end of November, and planted it with corn, the dry season came on so fast that little of it came to good.

These Bermudans (Baremoodians) had little help of the provision of store which was spent in the fruitless work of Warwick Fort. Thus many have endured great hardness. The island is full of hills and not so fertile as was reported. At New Westminster, and where Captn. Axe lives, the ground has this year twice failed in corn. This allotment of two acres a head will no more than find food.

Even if tobacco were as vendible as ever, the quantities from here would never cloy the market.

The tobacco that can be made between January and August may be as good as that of any country out of the Indies, if we observe the Spaniard's course of keeping it a year before sending it home. The worms eat our rafters, and the dust falling on our tobacco hinders the burning, and makes the taste bitter. Most men will have plantains and papawes in their season. Pines, orange trees, and lime trees grow, but do not bear. Potatoes are the most thriving and certain food we have. Fortification goes on slowly, and we are environed with enemies. From Fort Henry on the South West to Fort Warwick on the North East, a distance of seven miles, the land is inhabited. The 29 pieces of ordnance here, if fitly placed, would free the West side. The North side is not inhabited, and it is partly defended by breakers. Twenty pieces of ordnance are requisite for its defence. In the harbour there is good riding for twenty ships. Whatever others may relate, this is the truth. [p. 85.]

1646, May 9. [Somers Island, Bermuda.] William Rener to Alexander Pym at Derby House in Westminster. Concerning his estates in Padgett Tribe and Pembroke Tribe, and the estates of Lord Say and Sir Benjamin Rudyerd.

The Government is changed. Within twenty days after his arrival, the Governor called an assembly, pretending thereby to reform certain things amiss. All the ministers in the island, Mr. White, Mr. Goldinge, and Mr. Copeland, were Independents, and they had set up a Congregational Church, of which most gentlemen of Council were members or favourers. The burgesses of this assembly were picked out of those who were known to be enemies to that way, and they did not suffer a Roundhead (as they term them) to be chosen. Particulars of tobacco send to England in chests of cedar. [p. 95.]

1662, August 15. Surinam. John Treffry to Charles Pym.

We have been long in expectation of my Lord (Willoughby) who by his last told me that he would soon be ready to sail, having fully agreed with his Majesty concerning Barbados and this place. I hope that we shall see this colony wonderfully prosper by reason of the decline of Barbados, whence we daily expect sixty passengers and planters by the Guiana.

* Communicated by the Editor.

All things are excessively dear, and the sugar so bad that it will hardly be received. Money is as fluent there as in England, and taverns take nothing else —no goods, which must occasion a decay of their old trade. The Spaniards we understand have bought 500 negroes from the island for ready money at high rates. Our colony is daily improving. Seven ships have already gone hence laden with sugar, specklewood, and other commodities.

Major Noel has a windmill up, and ours will be the next to be made. Every one is striving for the good of the public. Our sugar is far better, and of greater price than that of Barbados. Our noble Governor may justly bear the honour, having won every one not only to himself but also to industry. Some debauched persons have lately tried to make the world believe that he intended to poison Lieut.-Col. [Robert] Sanford. It was a plot of Sanford's. Particulars given. [p. 96.]

1667, December 15. Barbados. Lord Willoughby to Sir Charles Pym.

"I am going to Leeward to settle things there, and I may chance try my skill in Indian-hunting. Their late barbarities have been such that they deserve no law." Heraldic seal.

1668, November 8. Antigua. William Byam to Sir Charles Pym at Hatton House, London.

I have deserted our unfortunate colony of Surinam, war and pestilence having almost consumed it. As it is to revert to the Dutch, I have with great loss removed to Antigua, where I am hewing a new fortune out of the wild woods. Resettling is hard, the island being ruined by the French and the Indians. The titles of our lands are established to the satisfaction of all, and the inhabitants are more now than ever before. Heraldic seal. [p. 96.]

The writer was a prominent Royalist refugee officer at Barbados in 1650, but removed to Surinam after Sir G. Ayscue's reduction of the island to the Commonwealth. He published "An Exact Relation of the most execrable attempts of John Allen, committed on the person of His Excellency Francis, Lord Willoughby of Parham, Captain General of the Continent of Guiana and of all the Caribby Islands, and our Lord Proprietor." Sm. 4to. London, 1665.

GREENWICH CHURCHYARD.

"Sarah daughter of Thomas Williams, Esq. of Nevis, wife of John Williams son of Colonel Williams of S^t Kitts, 1774." (Lysons' "Environs of London," iv., 471.) On searching the churchyard on 9 August 1909 this stone was not found. There are, however, several altar-tombs covered up by creepers, and many of the inscriptions have worn away or become filled up by dirt. This churchyard is now used as a public garden.

1785, May. Aged 80, John Williams, esq. of Nevis, son of Col. W. of S^t Kitts. He was the oldest planter in the old sugar islands, and had been senior member of the council above 40 years. ("G.M.," 489.)

1735, Nov. 26 John Williams, Senior, to be of the Council of S^t Christopher.

1743. John Williams then a M. of the Council of Nevis.

I do not know if these entries relate to the same individual.

By Indenture of 10 December 1755 John Williams, late of Nevis, then of Great Windsor, co. Berks (and Sarah his wife), for his daughters Frances Williams and Sarah Williams, conveyed to Henry Herbert and Tho. Mills all his plantations in St. Christopher and Nevis on trust. John Williams, jun., was of Wimpole Street.

In another deed of 1760 are mentioned John Williams, sen., of Lower Brook Street, and Sarah his wife of the one part, and John Williams, jun., of Wilton, co. Middlesex.

[Extract from a letter dated 1876 by the late Sholto Pemberton, Chief Justice of Dominica.]

This family of Williams had branches settled from very early times in Antigua, St. Kitts, and Nevis. Their pedigree is rather complicated and confusing, and any information about them is desired.

Pemberton.*

Pemberton.—John Butler Pemberton (the first) was Clerk of Assembly in 1730.

Williams.—By a deed of 10th December 1755, John Williams, late of Nevis, then of Great Windsor, Berks, for his daughters Frances and Sarah Williams conveyed to Henry Herbert and Thomas Mills all his plantations in S^t Kitts and Nevis on trust. John Williams' wife was Sarah .... A John Williams, junr., was of Wimpole Street. In 1760 was a deed between John Williams, senr., of Lower Brook Street and Sarah his wife of 1st part, and John Williams, junr., of Wilton, co. Middlesex.

Butler.—In Nevis, 1748, Duke Butler was described as of Swinden, co. Wilts, and as one of three sons of Thomas Butler, late of Nevis.

Peterson.—In a deed of 15th July 1754, John Peterson and Bates Williams Peterson are described as two of the sons of William Peterson, and Elizabeth Peterson is his widow. This William Peterson and a brother John were sons of Anthony (Book of Records, 1737, fo. 398). John was Deputy Provost Marshal. William Peterson had three other sons, James, Charles, and Robert, and three daughters, Elizabeth, Ann, and Eleanor. He owned the "Spring" plantation in Nevis.

Isabella Garnett, coloured, aged 78, daughter of Fanny Browne, both belonging to Parson Robert Pemberton, stated (in a personal interview with me), that Parson Robert Pemberton gave up North Wales estate at Nevis, and went to live at S^t Kitts. His wife's sister was wife of Mr. Jones. The two sisters owned an estate called "Williams," adjoining Cane Garden. They had three sons, John Butler, Robert Hughes, and Sholto, and two daughters, Eliza and Nancy. Eliza married Ed. Davis, brother of D. Gateward Davis, late Bishop of Antigua. They separated: she went to her father's house and died there. Sholto died at his father's house, as also his sister Nancy. Mrs. Pemberton died before her husband and children. John Butler married an English lady from Tortola and had five children.

* Copied on the spot during a visit to Nevis in 1902.

NOTE.—Of the above, No. 1 was the son of Wm. and Margaret P. [see Vol. I., p. 307]. In the Almanac of Nevis for 1826 his name is entered as a barrister. No. 2 has not been identified, but she may be the "Fanny," daughter of the Rev. Joseph Herbert P., who was baptized in 1834 and died single [see Vol. I., p. 308]. Nos. 3, 4, and 5 were sons of Walter Maynard P. of Spring Hill, Nevis, who was drowned at the wreck of the Clarendon off the Isle of Wight on 11 October 1836. No. 6 has the following obituary in the "G.M.," p. 382: "1828 Feb. 1. At Round Hill, Nevis, W.I. in his 67th year, Thos. John Cottle, esq. This gentleman was for upwards of 30 years a member of his Majesty's council; and for the greater part of that long period President of this Island." No. 7, Miss Julia Huggins was residing on her estate "Mountravers" in April of last year.

NOTE ON THE DESCENDANTS OF THOMAS PEMBERTON, LATE OF GOUGH HOUSE, CHELSEA.

During a portion of the period during which the families whose pedigrees are given in some detail above were settled in Nevis and St. Christopher, there were also members of another family of the name in the last-mentioned island. These were descended from Thomas Pemberton of Gough House, Chelsea, who was employed in the Transfer Department of the India Office for some years before his death in 1801 ("G.M.," 1153). No connection has as yet been traced between this family and the other Pembertons in the West Indies, but the publication of what is known may, it is hoped, lead to further light being thrown on the subject.

The first of them to emigrate appears to have been Thomas, eldest son of the above-mentioned Thomas of Gough House by his wife Maria, daughter of John Henry Sigerist, and went there as a planter. He was born on 9 November 1770 and baptized at S. Mary Abbott's, Kensington, on 10 December following. The date of his emigration has not been ascertained, but on 12 July 1798 he married at St. John's, Capisterre, St. Kitts, Frances Ashington Seaton, daughter of Captain William Seaton of that island.

A younger brother of this Thomas, John Busick Manning Pemberton, died at St. Kitts at the age of 22, and all others of the family there were direct descendants of this second Thomas.

He had a family of ten children, the baptisms of all of whom and also some of their marriages and burials will be found in the extracts from St. Christopher registers immediately preceding this note. Their names, in order of seniority, were Thomas Seaton, Frances Maria, William Augustus Sadler, Charlotte Hardtman, Busick Richards, Julia, Henry Seaton, Edward, Charles Davis, and Harriet Amelia Mary.

Thomas Seaton married in 1833, at St. James', Nevis, Adriana, daughter of Colonel James Daniell, President of that island, and he appears to have left St. Kitts soon after that, as his children were all born in London. His eldest son Mordaunt belonged to the Nevis bar in 1864 and became a Q.C. in 1879. He died unmarried in England in 1887.

No other member of the next generation appears to have settled in the West Indies—the only one of the six brothers who had a family being the youngest, Charles Davis, and he left St. Kitts at a comparatively early age, having been married at Broadstairs in 1816 ("G.M.," 1845, p. 420), and all his large family were born in England. He practised as a solicitor in London from the year 1816 to the year 1888, being senior partner in the well-known firm of Lee & Pemberton's of 44 Lincoln's Inn Fields.

His three eldest sons, Charles Seaton, Busick Edmonds, and Cyril Warner Lee became solicitors, and the second of the three is now senior partner of the same firm of Lee & Pemberton's. The fourth son, Seymour Blanshard, was in a West India Regiment and died at Barbados in 1881. One son, Ernest St. Clair, served in the Royal Engineers, and retired as a Colonel in 1908. Two sons, Seaton Blanshard and Willoughby Arthur (the youngest), are on the London Stock Exchange; and another, Horace Claude, has settled in the Argentine Republic. Three married daughters are also living.

Charles Davis Pemberton, the father of all these, who was born at St. Kitts a few months before the Battle of Waterloo, died at Brighton on 6 September 1899.

THE SETTLEMENT OF JAMAICA.

A considerable number of the early settlers in Jamaica did not emigrate there direct from Great Britain, but were drawn from the older colonies. This point is of much interest, and should be taken into consideration by readers when inquiring into the origin of the first inhabitants.

Capt. Gregory Butler, who was recruiting for the Expedition, in his letter to the Protector in 1655 [Thurloe's State Papers, iii., 574], wrote that Antegoe was molested by Indians and had but 1200 men, so he would not enlist any. At Montserrat he raised 80, at Nevis 300, and at St. Kitts 800 or 900, in spite of the French owning one half the colony. "This island is almost worne out by reason of the multitude that live upon it. . . . The fleet appearing we shipped our men to the number of twelve hundred and departed." Penn and Venables anchored off St. Kitts on 6 April 1655, and including the above 1200, they had on board 5000 West Indian settlers, besides women and children, the majority from Barbados. The survivors took possession of Jamaica next month. Vice-Admiral Wm. Goodson wrote on 24 June 1656: "Upon notice given from Governor Stokes of himself and the people of Nevis their intention to transplant themselves hither, dispatched three ships for their transport, and 4th June a vessel arrived from the Governor with three gentlemen to treat with us concerning shipping and to view the country. Afterwards fitted out a small vessel to carry back our resolutions of sending ships for about 1000 people besides women, children and servants" [America and W.I. Calendar for 1675-6, Addenda 1574-1674, p. 110]. Capt. Godfrey writes on 30 June 1656: "Is going with some ships to Nevis and St Christopher's to fetch the Governor, his lady, and such planters as will come to Jamaica." [Ibid., p. 112.]

Vice-Admiral Goodson writes again in Oct. 1656: "that they arrived at Nevis road on 9th Oct. and have been embarking about 1400 men, women and children, with their goods and servants and intend sailing 21st inst." [Ibid., p. 114.]

Cornelius Burough writes on 28 Nov. 1658: "In Gen. Brayne's time about 1,000*l.* in provisions was lent to Nevis planters settled on Port Morant, they being in great want." [Ibid., p. 125.]

The reason of this emigration was also, I believe, because Nevis, like St. Kitts, was over populated. It was a very small island of some 50 square miles, with a great central mountain, and not much available land for new comers.

After the capture of St. Kitts by the French in 1666, Du Tertre says some of the English inhabitants were sent to Jamaica, etc.

In 1670 the Somer Islands were so crowded that many of its people removed to Jamaica. In 1675 most of the English with their slaves also went there from Surinam—total in three ships, 1231. Their names are given. [America and W.I., 286.]

THE PARISH REGISTERS OF BARBADOS.

Bishop's Court,
Barbados.
11 October 1910.

The Registration of Baptisms, Marriages, etc., is very incomplete, owing to the destruction of nearly all the Registers in the year 1831,* but in some parishes, entries have been made of Baptisms, etc., in the Parish Vestry Books. There is, however, no complete list.

Below is a list of the Parishes in my Diocese:—

S. Michael.	S. Philip.	S. James.	S. Lucy.
Christ Church.	S. John.	S. Peter.	S. Andrew.
S. George.	S. Thomas.	S. Joseph.

W. P. BARBADOS.

HISTORIC SITES IN BARBADOS.

Allusion was made in Vol. I., p. 287, to the list of such sites printed on 23 December 1909 in the "Jamaica Gazette." The Committee for Barbados has now completed its task, and on 17 June 1910 sent in its Report, of which

* On the 10-11 Aug. of that year a most destructive hurricane occurred. Owing to the liability of the West Indies to earthquakes, hurricanes, and fires, it seems desirable that an Act should be passed, providing for the transcription of the parish registers, and for the deposit with the Bishop each year of certified copies of all entries. Such an Act was at one time in force even in England, and in these islands it is still more necessary. [ED.]

a printed copy has been forwarded to me by Mr. E. G. Sinckler, the Hon. Secretary. This list comprises all the old forts and batteries; tombs on plantations; and ancient "Great houses," of which Fontabelle, Drax Hall, and Nicholas Abbey were apparently all erected in the Cromwellian period. The M.I. noted relate more especially to the following families, viz.:—

Ayshford, Collins, Culpeper, Forte, Greaves, Holder, Holloway, Hooke, Lear, Lillington, Morris, Rice, Rider, Rouse, Scott, Simmons, Skeete, Thorpe, Tyler, Walton, Wilkinson, Williams, and Worrell. As the vaults on the plantations are more liable to destruction than those in the churchyards, it is hoped that the Inscriptions at all these outlying places may be copied verbatim and the coats of arms noted and forwarded to me for publication.

The late Major Herbert Thorne of Barbados copied all the M.I. of St. Michael's, and perhaps of other parishes, and his collection should certainly be printed.

Major Lawrence Archer's well-known work relates chiefly to Jamaica, and he stated that his stay at Barbados was so short that he only noted Inscriptions down to 1750.

ARCHBOULD OF JAMAICA (I., 264).

In the West India Committee Circular for 6 December 1910, under "Historic Sites and Monuments," appeared Mr. F. Cundall's article on "Constant Spring," from which I quote as follows:—

"When the lands on the plain of Liguanea were divided amongst themselves by Cromwell's army of occupation, that part on which the Constant Spring estate stands fell to the lot of Lieut.-Colonel Henry Archbould,* a member of the first Council nominated in 1661. He married in 1668 (he was her third husband and she was his second wife) the mother of Sir Nicholas Lawes (afterwards Governor of the Colony), but died in the following year, she surviving him twenty years. His son Colonel Henry Archbould, who had sat for St. George from 1680 to 1688, was elected Member of the Assembly for St. Andrew in 1701-2.

"His wife Joanna Wilhelmina was sister to the wife and cousin of Sir Henry Morgan (buccaneer and Governor of Jamaica), and sister to the wife of Colonel Robert Byndlos, Chief Justice. She obtained a patent of naturalisation in August 1685. The second Colonel Archbould died in 1709, and was buried in Halfway-Tree Church. The first Colonel Archbould's second son, Major William Archbould, was member for St. Andrew in 1688. James Archbould, the son of his second wife, was member for St. Andrew in 1702-4, but sat for St. David in 1713.

"In 1759 a private Act was passed (we read in Mr. Feurtado's 'Official and other Personages of Jamaica,' 1896) for the sale of certain lands in Liguanea belonging to Henry Archbould, late of the said parish, deceased, for payment of £8000 with interest, devised by the will of the said Henry Archbould to his daughter, Sarah Elizabeth Archbould, and for other purposes.

"In 1765 Constant Spring estate, with some mountain land adjoining, called Snow Hill, was (the writer is informed by Mr. G. F. Judah) sold by Henry Archbould to Daniel Moore, etc."

MORGAN OF JAMAICA.

Colonel Edward Morgan went out as Lieut.-Governor in 1664, and died in St. Eustatius July 1665 during the attack of that Island. By his wife, a dau. of Baron Pollnitz, he had:—

I. Anne Petronella, married Colonel Robert Byndlos. He died 16 June 1687, aged 49. Will recorded. Slab at St. Catherine's with his arms, impaling .... a chevron between three bucks' heads cabossed for Morgan (Archer, 34). They had issue:—
   1. Charles, heir 1688 to his uncle by marriage, Sir Henry Morgan, whose surname he was to take. A Tho. Byndlos of Jamaica graduated at Leyden 23 August 1742.
   2. A dau., married Tho. B., grandson of Colonel Peter Beckford. He matriculated from Merton College, Oxford, 10 November 1699, aged 17.

II. Mary Elizabeth, second dau. and fourth child, married soon after 1665 her first-cousin, Sir Henry Morgan (eldest son of Robert Morgan of Llanrhymny, Glamorganshire, brother of the above Colonel Edward Morgan). He was born about 1635. Lieut.-Governor of Jamaica 1674. Buried at St. Cath. 26 August 1688. Will dated 17 June and sworn 14 September 1688. She was buried at the same place 3 March 1696, s.p. Archer gives no M.I. See article on Sir Henry Morgan in the "D.N.B."

III. Joanna Wilhelmina, married at St. Catherine 30 November 1671 (I., 14), Colonel Henry Archbould.

RECORDS OF BARBADOS.

"About the year 1666, the Bridge-Town was burnt; and all the chief Records lost by a Hurricane, which happen'd the same year." ("Memoirs of the First Settlement of Barbados," Appendix I.)

In 1667 a commission collected all the Acts, "the Original Rolls being lost either in the Hurricane or Fire." The earliest of these Acts was dated 1648. By No. 5 Act, dated 13 March 1648, styled "An Act for the Transcription and safe keeping of the Records," it was enacted that the Secretary should draw a list of the books of records, and send them to some able person or Chief Officer, who was to cause them to be transcribed. ("The Laws of Barbados," printed by John Baskett, fo. p. 5.) This officer was, I think, subsequently styled the Register or Registrar. By Act No. 41, passed in 1661, the Fees of the Secretary's Office were settled, and the following papers are mentioned, viz.: Deed, bill of sale, bond, ticket, deposition, licence for marriage, will, administration, inventory, etc. (Ibid., p. 40.) Of the subsequent history of the Record Office I know little. Will some local authority give our readers an account of the present contents, with dates?

BROOKS OF ST. ELIZABETH, JAMAICA.

From an old painting on parchment. ARMS.—Or, a cross engrailed per pale Gules and Sable. CREST.—A brock or badger proper.

Brooks of St. Elizabeth, Jamaica.*

The earlier portion of the pedigree has been taken by Miss Nembhard from one drawn up by lawyers about 1807, endorsed "Sketch of Descent of F. G. Smyth Es^e^ from Geo. Brooks sen. Geo. Brooks, Will Ent^d^ 21^st^ Nov^r^ 1750. Lib. 28, folio 19. Papers relative to Mrs. Witter. Not examined." George Brooks, great-grandson of testator, was Claimant under the will as Right Heir of Mrs. Witter, the surviving Dau. of the three. F. G. Smyth of Goshen was Claimant as surviving Heir of one of the Daus., being son of Fra. Geo. Smyth, deceased, and grandson of Cath. Brooks and F. Smyth. The latter portion has been taken from the pedigree drawn up by her father, the late Major-General Nembhard (1827—1905), founded on facts partly derived from his mother (1808—1874). The pedigree requires proof from wills, deeds, and parish registers, but it is probably fairly accurate.

A bookplate of John Brooks has been preserved; it is in the Chippendale style, with the Brooks arms so incorrectly engraved as to be useless for illustration. It however shews on an escutcheon of pretence: Gules, on a chevron Or three pellets, a coat of some heiress which has not been identified. [Editor.]

SANTA CRUZ PARK,† JAMAICA.

This estate is in the parish of St. Elizabeth, some two miles from the village of Santa Cruz. About a mile from the residence known as "Pear Tree Valley" are the ruins of an old house with its large overgrown flower garden still traceable. To the east, on a slight eminence four or five chains off, is the old family burial-place, about 20 feet square, enclosed by a low stone wall. Within this is a stone tomb, surmounted by a massive black marble slab, with the following arms and inscription:—

Arms.—. . . . A cross engrailed per pale . . . . (no tinctures). Crest.—A badger passant above an esquire's helmet.

"Here lies the body of George Brooks, Esq^r^ the Elder, who departed this life May y^e^ 9^th^, 1750, aged 62 years, who was an indulgent father, a loving husband, and a good friend."

In his will (entered in the Record Office in Libro 28, fo. 18), dated 3 March 1748 and proved 21 November 1750, he names his wife Eliz., six sons, Samuel, John, George, Christopher, Thomas, and Francis, also four daus., Anna, Elizabeth, Bonella, and Catherine.

Without the enclosure, on the north, south, and east sides, are three more tombs, of which the north side one has no inscription. The tomb on the south side has the following inscription on a limestone slab:—

"Here lieth the body of M^rs^ Elizabeth Chambers, who departed this life on the 16 day of March, 1772, aged 52‡ years 3 months and eleven days. She was an indulgent parent and a good woman."

The tomb to the east is inscribed as follows, also on a limestone slab:—

"Here lieth the body of Bonella Chambers who departed this life on Sunday the 6^th^ September 1772 aged 31 years and four months. She was a fond affectionate wife, a dutiful child, and a benevolent woman."

The whole of the above information has been derived from an article in "The Gleaner" of Jamaica, 1898, by Leslie Alexander, a clerk in the Record Office of Kingston.

* Contributed by Miss Mabel Nembhard of 27 Gilbert Street, W.

† Formerly known as "Burnt Ground."

‡ I think this 52 must be an error for 32, as she would hardly be 21 years older than her sister Bonella.

John Brooks of the one part, and John Brooks of the other part do hereby agree that the lines .... in the above diagram .... shall be .... the dividing lines between our properties ...." Not signed nor sealed.

The second John is thought to have been a natural son of George Brooks, Esq., because in 1769 and 1775 private acts were passed to authorize the latter to dispose of his estate, without regard to the Law of Disabilities, and to intitle his reputed children by Mary Powell to the same rights as English subjects (Feurtado).

Dr. George Brooks inherited a moiety of the Chester estate Trelawney and Mr. Kenyon the other from the widow of James Virgo Dunn, his great-uncle, but sold this to Mr. Kenyon in 1844. He also sold outlying portions of Burnt Ground, and negros were allowed to squat on the remainder.

His son, the Rev. George Bygrave Brooks, sold 300 acres of the Blenheim estate, which had formerly brought in £10.000 a year, to a Rev. Mr. Hildebrand, Rector of Snowdon, both estate and house then being in a ruinous condition, for £180.

LIST OF WILLS RELATING TO THIS ISLAND PROVED IN THE P.C.C. FROM 1655 TO 1810.

The following list of testators has been gradually made during a search, extending over many years, through the volumes of wills at Somerset House. I do not think many names have been omitted, though some references are sure to have been overlooked.

In 1656 a list was drawn up of officers and soldiers engaged in the American Expedition who applied for arrears of pay, or on whose account claims were made by their widows, etc. (185 names, "Colonial Cal."). On 18 April 1656 Susanna, relict of Edward Winslowe, Esq., and Josiah, his son and ex'or, represented that her husband was appointed on 12 December 1654 one of the commissioners in the Expedition to the W.I., with a salary of £1000 per annum, but died on the voyage 8 May 1655 (Ibid., p. 439). Capt. George Butler, and Mary, widow of

* Their first son was Chas. Fred. (1840—1905), Assistant Bishop of J. 1888—1904, consecrated in Westminster Abbey 30 November 1888.

Major-General Richard Fortescue, are also among those named. See also her Petition of August 1661 (Ibid., p. 52). Considering that the death roll, at the abortive attack at Hispaniola alone, amounted to 1700, there are surprisingly few wills on record—less than 2 per cent. During the first six or seven years these relate mostly to soldiers and sailors, are very short, and of little interest, except when the ship is named, so I have not given a complete list of them. Instead of the familiar "H.M.S." the letters "S.S." for "States Ship" were used during the Cromwellian usurpation.

No stone can be found of any earlier date. There may have been one in the church to Colonel Tho. Butler of 1744, but the building was completely destroyed by fire some sixty years ago.

The first-named Mr. James Butler may have been the brother of Colonel Thos. Butler, but if he was the son he was buried 7 February 1770, aged 48, at Okeford Fitzpaine, Dorset. I could not find any burial of that date in the parish register of Camberwell.

The Hon. James Symonds, President of Nevis, by his will, dated 21 July 1758, wrote, "I forgive M^{rs} Judith Butler, widow, now in England (sister to my late wife), all sums owing," and settled all his estates on his only surviving child Judith, wife of Stapleton Dunbar of Nevis. Proved 7 September 1762 (P.C.C., 398, St. Eloy). I cannot identify this Judith Butler, widow. Testator had married, 10 July 1718, at St. George, Nevis, Mary Butler, who owned the Mountain plantation in her own right.

The following were extracted by me on 10 August 1909, but a complete search was not made owing to the fees. A search from 1700—1800 would have cost 50*s*.

Hutchins (iv., 332) wrote: "S. wall of Church. The following was also formerly there, but is now gone:—

And his charity endeared him to the poor.

On my visit to the church on 28 April 1909 this floor-stone could not be found, and as the chancel has been paved with modern tiles, it was probably destroyed during the so-called restoration of the church, or covered over by the tiles.

South aisle, on a handsome marble tablet, which according to Hutchins was in his time on the north wall, but it is now on the south wall:—

MARRIAGE.

Rev^{d} Robert Frome, Rector of the Parish of Folke and Jane Butler of this Parish &c. by Lic. 8 June 1778.

Rev. Duke Butler, B.A., of Queen's College, Oxford, was instituted as Rector 30 July 1750. He commenced a new Register book in 1750, when the signature "D: Butler Rect^{r}" first appears, and for the last time in 1778.

Rev. Thomas Butler, his son, LL.B., of Queen's College, Oxford, was instituted 11 February 1780; first signs in 1779, and last in 1809.

Rev. William Butler, brother of Thomas, as curate performed marriages on 17 October 1785, 23 December 1788, and 8 December 1793, and baptisms on 3 September 1815 and 1 April and 15 May 1816.

1811, Thursday, April 19. On Monday the 1st instant died, at Okeford Fitzpaine, in this county, in the 62d year of his age, the Rev. Thomas Butler, L.L.B. upwards of 30 years rector of that parish, and of Hannington, in the county of Wilts, and also of North Barrow, in Somersetshire.

His life was devoted to the practice of virtue, and the duties of his holy calling, yet his active mind found leisure for the pursuits of science and the useful mechanical arts.

He was afflicted with a dropsy combined with a liver complaint, the progress of which pointed out the approach of death, which he viewed undismayed, and being passionately fond of music, he took a solemn farewell of his organ a few days before his dissolution.

His known skill in mechanics occasioned professional artists of eminence, especially opticians, to consult him, to whom he fully communicated many inventions of great value. With these talents and acquirements, he was unassuming among his friends, and affectionate to his parishioners and dependants: he was therefore respected and beloved by rich and poor, and long will his loss be regretted, and his memory revered. ("Dorchester and Sherborne Journal.")

* This colour is now black from dirt and age.

FRAMPTON, CO. DORSET. ("Notes and Queries," 10 S., xi., 15.)

There is a small mural tablet on the south wall of the church, bearing the following inscription:—

In memory of
the Rev^{d} William Butler, L.L.B.
Vicar of Frampton,
who departed this life
August 13, 1843, aged 81.

Hutchins (iv., 344) states that he was instituted Vicar of Sturminster Newton 21 November 1791, but resigned in 1800, and (ii., 302) that he was of Wadham College, Oxford, B.C.L., and was instituted Rector of Frampton 1 February 1800. A notice follows about his foxhunting taste.

For a further account of "Billy Butler the Hunting Parson" see "Notes and Queries," 10 S., x., 310, 395, 453, and xi., 15; also "Som. and Dorset Notes and Queries," xi., 1, which has a photograph of his marble bust.

FOLKE, CO. DORSET. (Hutchins, iv., 182—185.)

In the chancel:—

Sacred to the memory of the Rev. ROBERT FROME, who died the 9th of April, 1833, aged 88 years; and of JANE, his wife, who died the 3rd of April, 1830, aged 76 years, &c.

ARMS.—Quarterly: 1 and 4, FROME; 2 and 3, CLUTTERBUCK .... The whole impaling Or, on a chief indented Azure three covered cups of the first (BUTLER).

In the Frome pedigree (Ibid., 184) she is entered as dau. of the Rev. Duke Butler, Rector of Okeford Fitzpaine.

Her husband was LL.B. of Wadham College, instituted Rector 9 June 1777, and was also Rector of Minterne Magna and of Goathill, Somerset.

Inhabitants of St. Kitts in 1678.

Sir William Stapleton, that most energetic Governor of the Leeward Islands, sent home in 1678 complete lists of the inhabitants of Antigua, St. Kitts, Nevis, and Montserrat, but only the totals for the Virgin Islands. These are the earliest known and of great interest. Those of Antigua having been already printed in my "History" of that Colony, I now give the list for St. Kitts, which I have copied exactly, only substituting S for the long "ſ" and F for "ff," as being more convenient to the reader. Some of the names are difficult to decipher, the Irish ones being worse (to me, at any rate) than the French. In the same volume are lists of the Members of the Council and Assembly, but these may be seen in the official Colonial Calendar.

I cannot account for the large number of Irish in this Island, unless they were imported to work on the estates. Later, during the war with the French, they sided with their country's enemies. Laws against Papists were then enforced, and I believe most of them were removed or went to Montserrat, which was almost wholly populated by Irish.

Many of the French, when persecuted by their own countrymen, who owned the two ends of the Island, fled across the borders to the English quarter. The Huguenots were especially welcome, and intermarried with some of the best families. In the earlier period the Dutch had all the plantation business and carrying trade. Only one Scotchman and one Welshman appear in the list!

North transept, on a white marble square in the floor :—

HENRY CRUGER
Esq^r. Ob. 3 Feb. 1780
Æ. 75.

1780, Feb. 8. Henry Cruger esq^r was buried by M^r Haynes M.C. (Cathedral Register.)

1780, Sat. Feb. 12. Saturday morning died in St. James's-square, in the 76th year of his age, Henry Cruger, Esq; (father of Henry Cruger, Esq; one of our Representatives in Parliament), Having been some years in a very ill state of health, he left New-York, the place of his nativity and residence, where he had sustained a most respectable private character, and filled the various offices of Member of the Assembly, Member of the Council, and Chief Magistrate, with the highest reputation. The cheerfulness of his disposition, and the affability of his manners, had endeared him to all those who had the pleasure of his acquaintance in this country. His remains were interred on Tuesday morning in the Cathedral of this city. ("F.B.J.")

He had large interests in the West Indies, as appears by his will, wherein he describes himself as Henry Cruger, Sen^r, late of New York, now at Bristol. Estates in Jamaica and St. Croix; proved 1780 (125, Collins).

In St. James's Chapel, Hampstead Road, is a tablet to Lieut.-Col. John Harris Cruger, late of Russell Place, Fitzroy Square, who died 3 June 1807, aged 69. He formerly resided in New York, and greatly distinguished himself as a Loyalist officer, etc. (Cansick's "Epitaphs," i., 225.)

The following is from Sabine's "American Loyalists," 234:—

"Cruger, John. Of New York. In 1775 he was Speaker of the House of Assembly, and during the recess that year, with thirteen other members of the ministerial party, addressed a letter to General Gage on the alarming state of public affairs. This communication is dated May 5th, on which day two members of the Council of New York sailed for England. When, in 1769, he was elected to the assembly, the success of his party was deemed a victory of the Episcopalians over the Presbyterians."

1822, May 16. At Chelsea, 78, Anne, relict of Col. Cruger, and dau. of late Brig.-gen. De Lancey. ("G.M.," 572.)

1827, April 24. At New York, aged 88, Henry Cruger, esq. formerly of Bristol, and its representative in Parliament, with Mr. Burke, from 1774 to 1780. In 1784 Mr. Cruger was again returned to the House of Commons, and on that occasion was represented on the hustings by his brother, Col. Cruger, being himself absent in America. He finally left this country for the United States in 1789, where he has since constantly resided; and it may be gratifying to his old friends (if any survive) to know, that no man ever lived more highly respected, or died more sincerely lamented. (Ibid., 94.)

Cloisters, north wall. A large marble monument* with a cherub above, resting its right arm on a headstone. To the right is an urn with shield bearing :—

Crest.—A dexter arm erect, couped, holding . . . . [broken], a coronet encircling the forearm. Arms.—Gules, a lion rampant Or.

* When the Rev. John Woodward wrote in 1867 this monument was on the west wall of the transept, and the arms were : Paly of six Sable and Ermine, a lion rampant Argent.

In vol. iv. of "The Herald and Genealogist," published in 1867, there is a valuable article by him on the Heraldry of Bristol Cathedral. During the restoration, when he wrote, much destruction of ancient monuments was taking place, and several M.I. and heraldry which he recorded are now (1909) no longer in existence.

On the small headstone is the following:—

1774, Sat. June 18. On Wednesday died at her House in Orchard-street, Mrs. Daniel, Wife of Thomas Daniel, Esq; late of the Island of Barbadoes .... Her remains will be interred this Morning in the Cathedral. ("F.B.J.")

1802, Sat. Feb. 27. On Tuesday last died, at his house on the Lawn, South-Lambeth, in the 72d year of his age, Thomas Daniel, Esq. late of this city, a merchant of the highest honor and respectability, and father of Thos. Daniel, Esq., an Alderman of our Corporation. (Ibid.)

See pedigree in Burke's "Landed Gentry," and Cave's "History of Banking in Bristol," p. 228. Thomas Daniel is stated to have left Barbados for England in 1764. Tho. Daniel, Sen., of Bristol, Merchant, in his will of 1761, names his son Tho. Daniel, probably identical with the above (387, Cheslyn).

A Mr. Moe was curate of St. Mary, Redcliffe, some fifty or sixty years ago.

1813, Feb. 4. At Weston, by the Rev. T. Wilkins, the Rev. Irenæus Moe, to Miss Charlotte Mapp, both of the island of Barbadoes. ("B.C.")

In the north aisle of Exeter Cathedral I noted some twenty-five years ago an inscription to Margaret, wife of Irenæus Moe of Barbadoes, Esq., died 25 October 1770, aged 28. In All Saints, Edmonton, there is one to the Rev. Samuel Rous Moe.

In St. Philip's, Barbados, is a partly effaced inscription to Lætitia Moe .... ob. 1735 .... James Moe .... Samuel Moe .... Christian Moe .... (Archer, 387).

See an article in the original "Caribbeana," vol. ii., p. 242, on the improvements made in the distillation of rum, by Mr. Moe of Barbados, about 1737.

There are many entries of Moe in the "Barbados Mercury."

My Lords

The last I presumed to write to your honours was the 27th July by which in generall termes I did inform your Lordships of the murder of some of his Majesties subjects upon the Island of Barbouda which was acted on ye 4th of July last at 3 in the afternoone; 40 Indians came up to ye house wherein were only three men, two woemen, and 2 children the Indians left the rest of their companions at the seaside or in bushes it is reported they were 300 men I judge 240 in six periagoes. As they came to the house they spyed one of ye people splitting of wood whom they stuck with arrowes and left him for dead, to those in the house (they pretended as it is their custom most treatcherous) they came in frieudship, and demanded drinke which was given them thorogh a window, and one of those within told them If you come in friendship goe and expell the poyson of them arrows you have shott at ye man without and cure him: butt iusteed of applyeing ye Juce of ye indian arrow root to him one of them who spoke good English (called capt peeter who lived formerly at Barbados with Coll Moris) staved his braines out with his owne ax sayeing hang ye dog he is not to be cured upon which they discontiuued their parly and ye christian within fired and shot this peeter in ye hand and he shot ye christian in one of his fingers upon this act they parlyed again promisseing each other to fire noe more: butt those treacherous villaines killed 3 boyes that were without the house knocking their heades against a tree. In fine they gott to ye house all ye partie they had hid and forced in one of the roomes, ye people within not being able to deffend round all ye roomes, ye comander of ye place one capt francis Malham comeing to ye deffense of ye house being abroad with some men was shot by ye Indians with a brace of Bullets thorogh the hart they killed & in all his wife ye two children and a sert woeman escaped by ye assistance of one of ye men whilst ye Indians were drinkeing kill devill or Rum (this country spiritt) and pillageing the house, there were three killed of ye Barbarous heathens two of them carried of as it is their practice if they can and left capt peeter dead behind.

I begg your Lordships pardon If I am tedious and doe pray your honours to represent to his Majestie ye necessitie of destroyeing those caribie Indians and yt he would bee graciouslie pleased to order ye Governour of Barbados to destroye them heathens which is soe easy a thing for yt Goverr to execute in regarde of its nearenesse to ye islands of St Vincents and Dominico, or to putt me in a capacitie to perform yt good peece of service whilst wee are in amitie with ye french who has them in subjection, or at least wise yt it may not bee disliked if I take all opportunities to make them fly to ye main: If I cannot compass their totall destruction I need not trouble your Lordships with a relation of ye importance of this affaire for ye safetie of the leeward Islands not doubting butt your honours are sensible thereof, wee are now as much upon our guardes as if wee had a christian Ennemie and more for wee feare noe such this time of ye yeare neither cann any such now surprize us butt these Cannibals may who never comes Marte Aperto thogh they have generally good fire armes from ye french and dutch and are as good firemen as any. BURIAL-GROUND AT DICKIE HILL, ANTIGUA.

I have omitted from the following interesting letter a lengthy M.I. to John Hawksley, Esq., from a tombstone at the west end of a small broken and empty vault, situated on the pasture land to the south-east of Bodkins sugar works. The M.I. is practically a duplicate of the one on the tablet in St. Paul's Church ("Antigua," ii., 87), which latter records that the burial was at Bodkins. Mr. Spooner's notes also relate to a burial-ground which was unknown to me. [Ed.]

Dickie Hill. I see in Baker's Map of 1746—8 the residence of Richard Oliver is shewn on what is now known as "Dickie Hill." There are a number of tombstones on this hill, but most of the inscriptions are illegible and the stones badly broken. The most legible are the following:—

1. "Here lies the body of Mary Cameron, who departed this life July 2nd 1802, aged 8 years, 2 months, 21 days."
2. "Sacred to the memory of Henrietta Horsford who departed this life 17th March [rest illegible]."
3. "Here lies the body of Mary Darby who departed this life June [rest illegible]."

Standing up in the pasture about 150 yards from the little graveyard in which the above stones, and perhaps six or eight more, stand or lie, is one stone marked: "My Elizabeth dep. May 12th 1805." The inscription is quite clear. The stone faces the north-east, so that it may not have been the grave of a human being, but that of a slave, or possibly of an animal.

WILLIAMS (I., 192).

As regards the Williams of Williams Farm, the W. W. on the old mill was William Williams, son of Joseph Williams. This family sprung from the Old Road Williams family, but was coloured and illegitimate. William Williams' brother was a manager here, and his daughter married a black man, who is well known here to-day in business circles—Mr. S. L. Athill. The last of them left the island years ago and the above lady is dead. The flint-stone windmill was built from money obtained under the "Earthquake Loan" of the forties, but apparently did not remain long in operation. This is why this mill does not appear in either Baker's or Luffman's maps.

GOLDWIN AND COPPELL OF JAMAICA.

A Tho. Goldwin was M. of A. for Clarendon in 1787 (Feurtado). He appears to have retired to England, where he purchased an estate called Vicars Hill in Boldre, Hampshire. Here his wife Elizabeth was buried 27 December 1808, aged 47, and he on 23 October 1809, aged 60, s.p. His will was made 23 January and proved 16 November 1809 (822, Loveday), and in it he names his sister Lucy Breton and her ten children, niece Maria Hardy, niece Eliza Ann Burrard, sister-in-law Susanna Coppell, cousin Louisa Aldridge, nieces Caroline and Eliz. Shickle, and refers to a conveyance by Eliz. Martha Pickering, late of Rickmansworth and formerly of Jamaica, dated 2 April 1787, to him of 65 slaves. The late Goldwin Smith's mother, Eliz. Breton, was a daughter of the above Lucy Breton. The Rev. Sir George Burrard, third Bart. (1769—1856) married firstly, on 1 September 1804, Eliz. Anne, daughter and heir of Wm. Coppell of Jamaica, and by her (who died 11 April 1815) had an only surviving child, George, the fourth Bart.

(1735—1821) and a son Tho. Is the parentage of Tho. Goldwin of Jamaica known? Further information is desired about the above families.

THE SETTLEMENT OF JAMAICA (ante, p. 45).

In pursuance of this subject it may be noted that in 1664 this Island was reinforced by Governor Sir Tho. Modyford with 1,000 Barbadians. The army during the first few years of occupation had mostly died off from intemperance, had neglected planting, and the military government had ceased in 1660.

On 27 February the King's Instructions were drawn up for Col. Edw. Morgan as Deputy-Governor of Jamaica to embark in the Westergate for Barbados, to hand over there a "black box" containing Commissions and Instructions and a purse of £3,000 to Colonel Sir Tho. Modyford, the new Governor of Jamaica. Lord Willoughby was also ordered to pay over £1,000 in sugars and give all possible assistance.

The Westergate arrived on 21 April, a "malign distemper" having carried off thirty of her passengers. Colonel Morgan was instructed on 2 May to sail at once with several scores of planters for Jamaica.

Sir Thomas followed a few days later, arriving about 1 June with 987 persons, in the Westergate, Captain Stokes, Marmaduke, and Swallow. It would be very interesting to learn the names of the above settlers from Barbados. Unfortunately the State Papers don't give them, but the Book of Patents at Jamaica should record the names of all those who took out grants of land.

Is this book still preserved, and what is the earliest dated patent it contains?

EARLY AMERICAN POETRY.*

Some time since the question was raised as to the authorship of an exceedingly rare and interesting volume of early American poetry published about the middle of the eighteenth century. The poem is entitled:—

The Antigonian and Bostonian Beauties;
A Poem
Occasion'd by seeing the Assembly, at St.
John's, Antigua, on Thursday the 7th of July, and afterwards at Boston, in King-street.
[Quotation.]
By W. S., A. B.
Boston:
Printed and Sold by D. Fowle in Queen-street.

Square 8vo, pp. 8, followed by "Thoughts from Seneca," pp. 8.

The years of that period in which the seventh of July fell on Thursday were 1743 and 1748 according to the Old Style calendar, and 1757 according to the New Style, but it seems impossible to fix the year of the festivities described with certainty.

As to the authorship of the quaint and fascinating verses, it has been suggested that the initials W. S. were those of William Shirley, the well-known Massachusetts Bay governor of the time, but they might equally well have been those of his nephew Washington Shirley, of His Majesty's Navy. Indeed, much more likely is it that the naval officer would have been attending social festivities at Antigua than that the New England governor would have done so. While it is true that the initial letters fit these names, it is unlikely that the real name of the author is divulged by them. The authorship of the poem has been ascribed in all seriousness to Rev. Charles Chauncy of Boston; but it is unfair to suppose a sedate, pious and orthodox minister of New England to have been guilty of such racy and amorous verses "after seeing the Assembly" of dancers in Antigua and Boston.

HAYNES OF BARBADOS.*

A short history of this family has just been published, which makes a very welcome addition to our scant West Indian genealogies. The first portion comprises the notes made by General Robert Haynes (1769—1851). These consist of memoranda relating to his family, interspersed with bits of local history, and are very interesting and valuable. The second portion contains a genealogy sent by an American gentleman, but this is so full of incorrect dates and other errors as to be quite unreliable.

The pedigree of the family can be proved from Richard Haynes of Newcastle in St. John's Parish, who was there married to Elvy Thorne on 30 July 1718. A certain John Haynes, Constable of that parish in 1661 and Surveyor of Roads 1671, is supposed to be identical with one of those names, formerly of Barbados, then of New York, merchant, born 1639, who died 9 December 1689, and in his will, dated 24 August 1689, named his wife Eliz , his son John, then at Barbados, and his son Andrew, also his brother Robert Haynes in Barbados. This Robert was presumably identical with the man of those names who was sidesman of St. John's 1683-4, Surveyor of Roads 1684—8, and of the Vestry in 1695. The above-mentioned Richard was probably descended from one of these two brothers John and Robert, but search will be necessary to establish this.

The parish register of St. John's commences—Marriages from 16 August 1657, Burials from 10 August 1657, and several entries are given from these, but no Baptisms. Let us hope that when further data have been secured, and abstracts of wills and indentures made from the Registrar's Office at Bridgetown, a revised and fuller edition, with a tabular pedigree, may be published.

MOTTO.—"Malo mori quam fœdari."

Granted to Ralph Payne of St. Mary le Bone in Middlesex, 1770. (Rowlandson's Heraldry.)

Ralph Payne was the eldest son and heir of Ralph Payne, Chief Justice of St. Kitts, by his first wife Alice, only daughter and eventual heiress of Colonel Francis Carlile of Antigua. He is stated ("D.N.B.") to have been born at St. George's, Basseterre, St. Kitts, on 19 March 1737-8 or 1738-9. In 1753, being then under age, he joined with his father in the settlement of certain plantations. After being educated in England (he was not at Oxford) he returned to St. Kitts, when he was elected a Member of the Assembly and chosen Speaker. In 1762 he returned to England and made the tour of Europe, and about December of this year or January 1763 his father died. On 1 September 1767 he married, at St. George's, Hanover Square, Françoise Lambertine, daughter of the late Frederick Maximilian (the "D.N.B." calls him Henry) Baron Kolbel of Saxony, a General in the Imperial Service. She had come over in the household of the Princess Poniatowski, sister to the King of Poland. In 1768 he was residing in Queen Anne Street, Cavendish Square, and was returned to Parliament for Shaftesbury, sitting until 1771. On 18 February 1771 he was created a K.B., and in May his commission was issued as Governor-General of the Leeward Islands, a post worth some £4,000 sterling a year. He arrived at Antigua on 1 February 1772. On 23 March 1775 the Legislature voted £1000 c. for a sword for presentation to him. He retired to England before July of this year, and on 17 February 1776 wrote from his house in Charles Street resigning his office of Governor-General. He was Clerk of the Board of Green-Cloth 1777—1782, and re-entered Parliament, sitting as member for Camelford November 1776—1780, and Plympton 1780—1784. He was a Whig and supporter of Fox, and entertained lavishly at his house in Grafton Street. In 1788 he went for a lengthy tour on the Continent. In 1793 he joined Pitt's party. On 1 October 1795 he was created Baron Lavington of Ireland. From 21 October 1795 to 1799 he sat for Woodstock. In February 1799 he was re-appointed Governor-General of the Leeward Islands, and on 30 October made a Privy Councillor. He arrived at Antigua 12 February 1801 and resided there until his death on 3 August 1807, aged 68. He was buried on 4 August in his garden on his plantation "Carlile's." A magnificent marble monument was erected to his memory by the Legislature in St. John's Church at a cost of 1,000 guineas, which was thrown down by the earthquake in 1843, only the portion with the M.I. remaining. Lady Lavington was voted £300 a year for her life, and died in Hampton Court Palace on 2 May 1830. (See "D.N.B." and "Antigua," vols. i. and iii.)

The following list of baptisms has come from the family of Willett-Adye, formerly of St. Kitts and Merly House, Dorset, who intermarried with the Paynes :—

Sir Thomas Lynch, Governor of Jamaica.

"The Lynch family was possessed of a small estate called Grove, in the parish of Staple in the county of Kent. They were of some antiquity, for arms were confirmed to them in 1572. Theophilus Lynch, bapt. 1603, appears to have married the dau. and h. of .... Rixton of Rixton Hall, in the village of Great Sankey in the parish of Prescot in Lancashire, whose pedigree was entered in the Herald's Visitation of that county. 'Hall Whittle,' an ancient building supposed to have been the seat of the family of Sankey, was subsequently occupied by the Rixtons of Sankey, who were seated here in the sixteenth century, and is now the property of Lord Lilford." (Baines's "Lancashire," edited by Croston, v., 33.)

No entries relating to the family of Theophilus Lynch could be found in the Prescot parish register; but from Warrington (the nearest church to Sankey) the parish clerk sent me the three following, though he could not discover the marriage:—

It only constrains Lynch's return and prevents the resolution he had to marry, send for his relations, and make this his England. Starts to-morrow towards New England. Intends in Spain to obtain permission to buy cattle in Cuba. Though 10 years of sufferings and hazards have endeared the Island (of J.) to him, yet resolves never to return. 277.

Charles Herbert, 1st son, (?) sometime at Jamaica; took out adm'on of estate of Sir Tho. Lynch July 1686; killed in Ireland 1691.	Arthur, Earl of Torrington, 2nd son; d. s.p. 14 April 1716 ("D.N.B.").	Edward Herbert, 3rd son, Lord Chief Justice; d. November 1698, a bachelor ("D.N.B.").

1665, Feb. 20. Govr. Sir Tho. Modyford writes that he is attempting a trade for cattle at the South Keys of Cuba, and Col. Lynch, in a youthful bravery, intends to apply for a licence at Madrid to purchase 2,000 or 3,000, 281.

1665, Oct. 13. He writes to Lord Alington from Bristol. 324.

From 1665 to 1670 Col. Tho. Lynch apparently resided in England, and Le Neve thus records his knighthood:—

"Lanc. S[r] Thomas Lynch of Rixton hall in Great Sonkey Governor of Jamaica knighted at Whitehall 3 December 1670." (Le Neve's "Knights," 243.)

A week or so later followed his marriage with Vere, daughter of Lady Herbert of Weybridge in Surrey and of the late Sir Edward Herbert (miscalled "George" in the "D.N.B."), who had been Attorney-General in the reign of Charles I., and died in 1657.

1670-1, Jan. 5. Having been this day commissioned by the King as Lieut.-Governor he returned to Jamaica with his wife and family, arriving on June 25.

1671, Nov. 29. Sir Thomas wrote "that his wife was brought to bed of a son (Charles) five weeks ago." ("America and W.I.," 277.)

In Blome's "History of Jamaica" is a map of the Island engraved in 1671, with a shield of "S[r] Thomas Lynch knight, present Governour of y[e] Isle," bearing these arms: Quarterly, 1 and 4, three lynxes rampant (for Lynch); 2 and 3, on a bend three covered cups (for his mother, an heiress of Rixton of Rixton Hall). Sir Thomas was recalled by the King's letter of 20 November 1674, Lord Vaughan having been appointed Governor and Capt.-General by patent of the previous April 3rd.

1675. On March 7 he handed over the government to Sir Henry Morgan lately constituted Lieut.-Gov., Lord Vaughan taking over supreme command on his landing on the 13th. ("America and W.I.," 182—4.)

After settling all his accounts he left in May for England, where he took up his residence at his house in Leicester Fields. He was for the next year often called before the Lords of Trade and Plantations to give information about the Colony.

In 1679-80 he purchased the manor of Esher, a few miles from Lady Herbert's home at Weybridge.

1681. His commission as Capt.-General, Vice-Admiral, & Governor-in-Chief was drawn up on Aug. 6, & he sailed about the end of the year. After being over 16 weeks windbound he quitted Madeira on 6 April 1682, leaving his wife behind at that place in a dying condition, and arrived at his seat of government on June 14. ("America and W.I.," 99, 246.)

Lady Lynch probably returned from Madeira to Esher, as she was buried there on Sept. 30.

Sir Thomas shortly afterwards married (evidently in Jamaica) Mary, dau. and coh. of Tho. Temple of Frankton in Warwickshire (Le Neve's "Knights," 243), whose sister Anne had married in 1666 Sir Chas. Lyttelton of Jamaica.

On 25 Feb. 1684 Major Peter Beckford was described as Sir Tho. Lynch's nephew. ("America and W.I.," 590.)

1684. Col. Hender Molesworth wrote home on Aug. 30: "Sir Thomas Lynch died on the 24th instant." (Ibid., 681.)

He was buried under a black marble slab in St. Catharine's Church,* one of seven slabs lying on the floor of the chancel within the communion rails, on which were his arms, three lynxes rampant, and crest, a lynx statant, and this inscription:—

"Here lyes Sir Thomas Lynch in Peace, at Ease, & Blest
Would you know more, the World will speak ye Rest."

(Roby, 17; Archer, 58.)

He was an able upright Governor and endeavoured to suppress piracy and privateering, which in their various forms were much encouraged by certain persons, who derived large profits from the sale of captures at Port Royal. That he was honest is proved by his dying so short of ready money, that his widow was compelled to borrow £500 for the expences of his funeral. ("America and W.I.," 722.)

The charges of embezzlement his enemies brought against him after his death were apparently groundless or trivial.

Lady Lynch, who was but eighteen at the death of Sir Thomas, retired to England, where she remarried, 12 Feb. 1688-9, Col. Hender Molesworth, her late husband's great friend, for whom Sir Thomas had obtained the office of Lieut.-Governor, and who as such carried on the government after his death. (See pedigree of Molesworth in Vivian's "Visitation of Cornwall," i., 327, and Collins's "Baronetage," iv., 29.)

* The following extract is from a letter of Mr. Frank Cundall to the Editor, dated 14 Sept. 1909: "The tablets in the Cathedral did not, I think, suffer from the recent Earthquake. With regard to Sir Thomas Lynch, Mr. Judah writes to me from Spanish Town: 'Sir Thomas Lynch was buried 25th August 1684 in the Parish Church of St. Catherine. It is safe to presume that he died the previous day.' His tombstone was evidently in the Church in Lawrence Archer's time; but when they enlarged the church some time later, the Goths put it outside the north wall of the chancel, where it now is." On 22 Sept. 1909 he writes: "I now send you the exact wording of the entry of Sir Thomas Lynch's burial:—

Parish Register of St. Catherine. Burials. 1684, August 25th. His Excellency Sir Thomas Lynch, Captain General and Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Island of Jamaica."

Remonstrance of Antiguans.

The following interesting narrative was deposited by the Society of Friends in the P.R.O. in 1909.

There were in 1666 only four Quaker families in Antigua, of whom were Jonas Langford, who contributed to Besse's "Sufferings of the Quakers" the Antiguan section, and Capt. Sam. Winthrop. One of these two may have sent the paper to London. They were, however, both highly educated, and the spelling throughout is execrable, but Mr. G. Fothergill has had it copied verbatim and without alteration. Portions of the record are also illegible or destroyed.

* Antoine le Febure de la Barre is his correct name.

† Du Tertre says the French Fleet arrived at Antigua on 4 November, and anchored in Five Islands Bay, so that the dates do not quite agree. Capt. Sam. Winthrop wrote October 25, which confirms the English version.

The said specifieing their civil uses to himselfe & the rest of the prisoners & the enemies resolusion to reduce the Iland. And as they have since avered a summons which if the paper was not delivered, if by verball not understood the Messengers being dismist with thanks for their cevillyties to our prisoners & one promised to use the like to theirs, when any should fall into their hands, they prestly fitted their selves for the assault being .... besides the Marquis the tendant & many other persons of qualtie And use for our defence, nott being two hundred men placed at the foot of the hill behinde the states. The dispute was very sharpe for half an hour, when the enemie much gnaled with our shott ran violently on & broake their passages through upon our men, who were thereby forced to retreat up the Hill in which retreat many of them where slaine & wounded. The enemies presuit being very hot, most were forced to fley into the fields, the others recovered the house, where they made what resistance they could but being overpowered most of them killed & wounded, the rest yeelded upon quarter & where carried away prisoners aboard the ships amongst whom was Lt. Coll. Charles Ghest despreatly wounded, the house they ransacked, plundered & sett on fire with all the building mill bayling house c ... house with the sugar therin & all other edifices. Having then finished their distruction in this place they returned to Five Ilands & in their way burnt the storehouse of the said Bayer, at the lea side being full of sugar as also all the said Muggs Sugar worke, carrying away his coppers, cases, etc. The major part of them that escaped repaired to Capt. Winthrops, as a place fitt to make head again, where they continued that night expecting the enemies. And the next day more comeing in made up the number near two hundred men, of which were seaven files of the Barbadians, who after they were .... with powder .... they would obey none but when they .... having .... Col. Bastian .... to be their comander they were persuaded to keep in body & things were orderd as well as the time would permitt. About nine our scouts brought in a trumpeter with this summons.

The lord the labare Lt. Generill of the most Christian King in the West Indians.

Wee make known to the Inhabitance of this Iland Antigua that if the next Theirsday noone they shall nott submitt them selves to the obedience of the King of France, we will distroy by fire the whole Iland & will not give quarter to any person yett promissing favourable & advantageous dealing if they will treat with us.

Very few of the Officers etc. gentlemen of the country where present when these summons was brought being with the Compannies at the figgties in their way towards that party at Capt. 29 Oct. 1666. The next day the Commanders, officers, & deputies of most of the devissions with some other gentlemen mett at the house of Mr. Henry Meyer, & haveing taken into consideration the enemies strength as is menconed in the begining, his resolution which was to burne & destroy without quarter, his couradge, which are men sufficiently prooved in the last conflict, his advantage haveing ships & boats constantly out to land where they pleased, without tyring or hasarding his men. Good armes & ammonition enough & on the other side our weaknesse, the whole Iland not being able to raise sufficent force to withstand so potent an enimie the impossibillity of following him to such places, as he might land at but that he might burn kill & distroy without resistance, not powder enough, in the whole Iland to hold a considerable dispute or engagement with them firm, & after that noe hope of relieve nor place of safty to retreat to, except the cold & wett mountaines, the maney distractions & confusions amongst our selves, several openly declaring they would oppose the enimie noe more but would goe & make their owne condition if the officers would nott .... running away to the enimie & carrying with them .... lastly .... our old .... enimie* .... lay ready to burn & destroy upon the Northside which six days after wee found by whofull experience for upon the fifth of November they fell upon my Lord Willoughbies plantation & killed his people, carried away all that was portable for their use & most of his slaves, burnt all his houses & sugar workes downe to the ground doeing the like to Mr. Joseph Hodgskin & others.

The foresight of these our misserys, which as to man are unavoidable added to the .... distruction seen & felt two days before left us without hope of resisting the present enemie & therefore concluded it better in the sight of God & man to surrender upon articles for the preserving of the lives & as far as we could the estates of the Kings subjects then to loose both through an mindicious obsistance & thereupon, this folling answer was sent to the said Lt. General.

Right honorable.

Wee have received yours of the seaventh of November new stile which is some thing short to us not knowing of a former summons which is specified by your trumpter & by some .... of the gentlemen yor prisoners which wee supposed was altogether unknowne to them as .... to us & therefore desire yor honor not to mistake the intention of our civellyties, nor to beleive that we shall omitt any respects to your civell perposalles, we shall therefore humbly desire (the time you limited being two short) that you will be pleased to appoint some, eonvienent time & place at your .... with your honour or commissioners for as we resolved with Gods assistance nott to forfeit our alleadginience to our prince, by delivering up his .... session basley so we shall not be injurious to our selfes nor render our actiones so comtemptious to .... men of reason as not to accept what shall be moderate between .... & likewise to advoid the effusion of blood which may happen, thus humbly desireing yor civel construction of what mistakes have passed, we subscribe our selves, dated 29 Oct. 1666.

Blackman of Antigua and Barbados.

The following list is written on a double sheet of folio paper, bearing "G.R." on the water-mark. It is unfortunately not signed nor dated, but it was probably drawn up by Rowland Blackman in or soon after 1726, when settling his late father's affairs.

The deeds relate to the Blackmans' plantations in Antigua and Barbados, both called "Mount Lucie," which had descended to them by marriage from the family of Messrs. Lucie, who were wealthy Anglo-Dutch merchants, with extensive dealings in the West Indies during the seventeenth century.

MAY v. BERNAL, 1783.

Jamaica. In Chancery. The Hon. Rose Herring May of the Parish of S^t Dorothy Esq. and Mary Trelawny his wife Complainants and Jacob Israel Bernal and Robert Finlay adm'or of Abraham Biggs Defendants.

The Bill filed 10 March 1783 sets forth that Complainant having become indebted to Wm. Gray of the Parish of Kingston J. Esq. in the sum of £19,681 sterling or £27,553 c. repayable by installments spread over 12 years secured by 12 bonds dated 20 March 1775 with Interest at 6 per cent., etc., and being seized in fee simple of those two plantations of Gymballs and Cherry Garden in the Parish of S^t Dorothy containing together 520 a. and slaves as a collateral security by a Mortgage of 20 March 1775 conveyed them to Wm. Gray [here follow the names of all the slaves] and on Cherry Garden 44 steers and 16 mules and on Gymballs 32 steers 13 cows 5 calves and 10 mules and W^m Gray assigned his interest to J. I. Bernal on 20 Ap. 1775 by an Ind're of Transfer of Mortgage tripartite between Gray, May, and Bernal. Complainant being in Bath the following Oct. and considering the mortgage was not above one third the value of the estates borrowed £6000 of Messrs. Tho. Pennington and Ab. Biggs of Bristol Merchants and by Ind'res of lease and release dated 23 and 24 Oct. 1775 he granted to them the said two estates by way of mortgage. That the 1^st bond was paid off but by reason of the great drought preceding the crop of 1777 the proceeds were reduced from 247 hhds. of sugar to one hhd. and 8 tierces and he could not meet the 2^d bond so by the Common law the est. of Bernal became absolute but subject in equity to be redeemed pro tanto and Bernal at Nov. Grand Court 1777 brought an action in Ejectment and Replevin and Compl^t came to an agreement with him on 9 Dec. 1777 [recited in full] by which he was to retain the management of the estates M^r Bernal was to ship the produce and the whole debt was to be paid off in 7 years but Bernal withheld the necessary supplies so on 6 March 1778 he gave up possession but to retain the management and cultivation. Ever since the management has been refused him and no balance has been paid over and Bernal on 12 Nov. 1779 filed his Bill against Compl^t and Tho. Pennington and Ab. Biggs stating he had discovered there was the second mortgage defrauding the latter and that therefore the agreements of 9 Dec. 1777 and 6 March 1778 were not valid and that the accounts might be referred to a Master of this Court and the estates sold and Compl^{t} put in his Answer about 29 Dec. 1780. Bernal sailed in May last past for Great Britain and has delayed the suits and has received over and above what was due to him having sold 684 hhds. and 346 puncheons of rum worth £34,000 c. Compl^{t} ought to be reinstated and accounts submitted. The non reciting of the first mortgage on the 2^{d} one was due to his inadvertence. The £6000 was not half the value of the equity of redemption. Pennington and Biggs not being represented in this I. one Rob^{t} Finlay of the parish of S^{t} Catharine gent. was granted letters of adm'on to defend this suit. Prays that the Agreement may be carried out.

On twenty-three sheets of paper.

I have also the Cross Bill of May v. Bernal, filed 10 March 1783. It is very voluminous, on twenty-five huge sheets of paper, and signed by Henry Browne, Geo: C: Ricketts, H: Lewis, and Geo: Wotton Sol^{r} for Compl'ts. There are also copies of all the subsequent proceedings to 21 April 1784, when the decree was given.

The will of Abraham Bernal was proved in 1790 (3, Bishop).

In the "D.N.B." are long articles on Ralph Bernal and his son Ralph Bernal-Osborne, from which it appears that:—

Ralph Bernal, Sen., was of Spanish Jewish descent, took his degrees of B.A. from Christ's College, Cambridge, in 1806, and M.A. in 1809, and became a barrister of Lincoln's Inn in 1810. He then inherited a large property in the W. I. and sat in Parliament thirty-four years, dying in Eaton Square on 26 August 1854. His art collection was sold in 1855 for £71,000. He married 1stly Anne Elizabeth, only daughter of Richard Samuel White of New Ormond Street, on 10 April 1806. She died 10 July 1823 in Bryanston Square. He married 2ndly a daughter of Dr. Henry White, R.N., surgeon of Chatham Dockyard, and had issue by both wives.

Ralph Bernal-Osborne, the eldest son by the first wife, born 26 March 1808, was educated at Charterhouse, and matriculated from Trinity Coll., Cambridge, Oct. 1829; entered the Army, and then sat in Parliament from 1841 to 1874. On 20 August 1844 he married, at St. George's, Hanover Square, Catherine Isabella, only child and heir of Sir Thomas Osborne, 9th Bart., whose surname he assumed. She died at his seat Newtown Anner near Clonmell 21 June 1880. He died at Bestwood Lodge 4 January 1882, and was there buried on 10 January. They had issue two daughters, of whom the elder, Edith, married, 7 February 1874, Sir Henry Arthur Blake, G.C.M.G., Governor of the Bahamas and Jamaica; and the younger, Grace, on 3 January 1874, the 10th Duke of St. Albans.

MAY AND UX. v. BERNAL AND AL^{S}.

Answer of Defd^{t} J. I. Bernal p^{r} Att^{y}, 1784.

Jamaica. In Chancery. At H.E. the Chancellor's House on Thursday 15 April 1784.

The Petition of Jacob Israel Bernal Merchant of Kingston but now absent from this I. being read it was ordered that he put in his answer by Aaron Nunes Henriques of Kingston Merchant his Att^{ny}.

Annexed is a letter dated 14 April 1778 written by Bernal to R. H. May, saying that "Since my receiving possession of Gymballs and Cherry Garden Estates . . . . it has been discovered that there is another Mortgage upon Record from you to Pennington and Biggs of Bristol," 'and the writer expresses his astonishment that his Mortgage was not mentioned in the second one and states that all right of redemption had been forfeited and was now vested in the second mortgagees and refuses to have any further business transactions.'

This Defendant admits that R. H. May became bound by 12 bonds to W^{m} Gray and was seized in fee simple of Gymballs and Cherry Garden and certain slaves and Gray transferred them to him for £19,681 sterling the amount due, and soon after the Complainants left for Great Britain and said they would in Oct. be in Bath and he has no doubt May borrowed the £6000 from Pennington and Biggs. £19,681 was greater than the sum May paid for the estates.

There was a very great Drought preceding the crop of 1777 and only 1 hhd. was made. In 1775 the yield was 109 hhds. and 132 tierces (equal to 88 hhds.) or a total of 197 hhds. and 72 puncheons of rum and in 1776 90 hhds. 70 tierces and 56 pun. and in 1775 there were worked 180 slaves. May neglected the slaves and the reason the 2^{d} bond was not paid off was owing to his extravagance and great losses in gaming at Bath and elsewhere—that by insufficient supplies and overwork the slaves in 1777 were reduced by death from 180 in 1775 to 111 and the cattle from 115 to 73, there were no mules left, and May had used his chariot horses to turn the mill and Defd^{t} obtained possession to save the estate from ruin.—He never knew of the 2^{d} mortgage when he met May and signed an agreement on 9 Dec. 1777. Verily believes May intended to defraud his creditors . . . . has received the following crops hhds. Sugar of 12-13 cwt.		pun. rum.

1778	...	150	...	78
1779	...	63	...	30
1780	...	143	...	69

1782	...	204	...	100
1783	...	9	...	7	drought

The nett produce while estate has been in his possession has been £24,537, and he hath laid out £13,809—is ready to come to an account for all his transactions. The debt due to Defd^{t} was £19,681 st. or £27,553 c. and the estate was not worth more than £36,000 c. viz.

270 a. in canes @ 70*l.* pr. acre, 250 a. pasture @ 15*l.* pr. acre, a cattle mill 5000*l.* about 100 negroes @ £60 per head and cattle at £15 so that after paying Defdt. there would only remain £8,500 c. Defd^{t} when in England made inquiry of Mr. Lane and saw the title deeds, and believes May deceived Pennington and Biggs, and Mr. Seager their solicitor drew the 2^{d} mortgage and May promised them a consignment of 350 hhds. yearly.

Signed by Alured Clarke, the L^{t} Gov^{r}, and John Edward Shackleford, the Registrar in the Court of Chancery.

On eleven large paper sheets, but incomplete.

DRAFT OF BRIEF BY WILDMAN AND SMITH.

1784, April 21. The Cause was heard this day and His Excellency decreed that inasmuch as the Compl^{t} Rose Herring May had been hindered from carrying the Agreement into Execution by the means in the Bill stated he should have 6 years and 9 months in addition to the 7 years mentioned that he was entitled to the Equity of Redemption of the Mortgage to Tho. Pennington and Ab. Biggs that Rich^{d} Batty Esq. one of the Masters should state an account as from Bernal but not allow him any commission on the gross produce and pay all balance to the Registrar of this Court for the beneficiaries of the est. of Ab. Biggs deceased and that Geo. Cuthbert Esq. the Sequestrator of the estates should let R. H. May have the sole conduct of them.

From the above Order Defd^{t} J. I. Bernal received permission to appeal to His Majesty in Council.

Bernal lost his first suit for contempt, and paid the legal costs of Ab. Lane's attornies, amounting to £162, in October and November 1789 to Cockburn and Davis, the Solicitors in Kingston, and £263 for law costs incurred in Jamaica by Grant and Shawe in 1789. £250 was also paid Patrick Kein; £130 to Richard Grant.

Notes and Queries.

Nassau, New Providence
23rd: September 1803.

Sir,

Your much Esteem'd Lines under the 30th: of April I did not receive untill the 6th Instant Accompanied by a very Valuable present of East India Cotton Seed. The Seed, with your Letter, I took the earliest opportunity to lay before our Bahama Agricultural Society, when the highest sense of Gratitude was express'd by every Member present for Your polite and friendly attention, and I was requested to Convey to you the unanimous thanks of the Society.

The Bengal Bean you was so good as to send Us in Decr. 1801 has proved a Vast acquisition to these Islands—it is amazingly productive and goes by the name of Sir Joseph Bank's Bean. I sent a few of them to Doctr Mitchill at New York who is now propagating them with a prospect of Success. If anything will revive the Spirits of our planters, it will be the encouragement and information you are so good as to afford them.

I am now making a Collection of the Marine Productions of these Islands. If there is anything I can send you from hence that will be Acceptable, I shall take a great pleasure in Complying with your Wishes.

I have the honor to be with the greatest Respect
Sir, Your obliged & faithfull humble Servant

The Right Hon^ble^: NATH^L^ HALL.
Sir Jos^h^. Banks K.B.

MANNING OF ST. KITTS (I., 245).

In an article contributed to "The Tablet" of 28 Jan. last, Mr. Percival Lucas gives conclusive evidence proving that the late Cardinal Manning was born in the year 1808, and not in 1807, as stated by Purcell in his "Biography."

BROOKS OF JAMAICA (II., 51).

Francis Brooks, the sixth son of George Brooks, did not die s.p. He left at least two children, a son William and a daughter Frances. The daughter married in August 1791 John Spence Brodbelt (St. Dorothy Register, vol. i., p. 30), and marriage notice in the "St. Jago Gazette" of 4th August 1791: "Married. On Monday evening John S. Brodbelt, Esquire, to Miss Frances Brooks, the daughter of Francis Brooks, Esq., deceased." The Brodbelts had a large family, of whom the youngest daughter, Julian Cardonal (1806—1842), married, 1 January 1829, my grandfather William Livingston (1805—1863).

The son William Brooks married a sister of the above John Spence Brodbelt, namely, Frances Virgo Brodbelt, a few days after his sister's marriage. The following is the notice from the "St. Jago Gazette" for 11th August 1791: "Married. On Sunday evening last in this Town William Brooks, Esq., to Miss Frances Virgo Brodbelt, daughter of John Brodbelt, Esquire." There was issue of this marriage two daughters.

This Mrs. Brooks was a great friend of Michael Scott, the author of "Tom Cringle's Log."

SPOONER OF JAMAICA (I., 1).

I find that there is in the Record Office of this Island an exemplification of the will of John Spooner of St. George, Bloomsbury, co. Middlesex, which will was proved in the P.C.C. 17 January 1758.

By the Records of Deeds in the same Office I find that J. Spooner acquired by purchase from John Cossley and others "Eolus Valley" plantation in the parish of St. David in this Island, and adjoining lands, in July 1744, also "Cambridge" plantation and lands in the same parish. They were very extensive properties.

By a deed of assignment and release he and another obtained from Joseph Hiscox and others certain bonds relating to property in the parish above named in July 1746. And he obtained other lands in St. David from John Brook in July 1752.

By the recitals in this deed of assignment and release it appears that he was a merchant, as his father John Spooner, also of Bloomsbury, was, and both were connected in business with Mr. Hiscox—his father with the elder Hiscox, and he with the younger.

By the records there appear also administrations in Jamaica of the personal estate of Jane Isabella Spooner of Great Britain, widow, 9 April 1802, and of Hungerford Spooner of Great Britain, Esq., 15 October 1823.

GOLDWIN AND COPPELL OF JAMAICA (II., 93).

I do not think that Thos. Goldwin had any ancestors in Jamaica, and as there is no will of his recorded here I can make no reference to it in order to obtain information. The first mention of the name of "Goldwin" in any of the records of Jamaica is in a deed of sale of eleven slaves from George Moulton of St. Dorothy, Merchant, to Thomas Goldwin of the same place, Merchant, dated 24 July 1773. He thus evidently must have arrived in the Island with some means, for in 1777 he married Elizabeth, daughter of John Shickle of Clarendon, a large landed proprietor and owner (inter alia) of "Danks" or "New Savoy" Sugar Estate and "Shickle's Pastures" in Clarendon. When Shickle died he left Goldwin and William Coppell (who had, before Goldwin's marriage, married another daughter) two of his executors. His personal estate, including slaves (£6000), amounted to nearly £60,000 current money of Jamaica (£36,000 sterling). He died in 1782. By the marriage settlement on his daughter's marriage with Goldwin he settled £5000 on her, Goldwin settling also a like amount. In the marriage settlement Goldwin is described as of Clarendon, Merchant. In 1779 Shickle conveyed to Mrs. Goldwin fourteen slaves as a Deed of Gift.

The second and third Deeds of Records to Goldwin describe him as also of St. Dorothy, Merchant. They are dated respectively 1778 and 1779, and are conveyances to him of 200 acres in Clarendon, and of Mullett Hall, 640 acres, also in Clarendon. Following are four deeds (1779). The first is from Shickle of an estate called Monnsons of 185 acres in Vere. The second and third are supplemental deeds of "Mullett Hall," and the fourth a conveyance to him of Chapman's Hall, 300 acres, in Clarendon. In these he is described as of Clarendon, Merchant. I may mention that in 1776, in a deed of conveyance to him of "Long's Wharf" in Clarendon from Beeston Long, he is described as of St. Dorothy, Merchant, but this deed was not recorded until 1784. After this latter date he acquired properties for himself individually and in conjunction with Wm. Coppell, both of them having become partners and trading in Kingston as merchants, and in all these deeds he is described as of Kingston, Merchant. The partnership between him and Coppell must have commenced in about 1784-5, for in the latter year Mullett Hall was conveyed in trust to the firm, the property having been cleared of the several mortgages on it, which fell into Goldwin's hands. He retired to Great Britain in 1796, for his powers of attorney to Coppell and others are dated in June of that year.

Peter Breton of Kingston married Lucy, sister of Thomas Goldwin, in about 1787-8.

Mrs. Elizabeth Israel Pickering was evidently the mother of Mrs. Coppell and Mrs. Goldwin and of their brother John Hayle Shickle, for John Shickle in his will mentions them as children of Elizabeth Montin or Elizabeth Montin Israel. She must have married after the death of John Shickle.

THE SETTLEMENT OF JAMAICA (II., 45, 93).

The records of the Patents of Lands granted to the old settlers of Jamaica are all intact. But they are indexed alphabetically in the names of the grantees, so that to get at the dates one has to go through the entire index.

GEO. F. JUDAH.

St. Jago de la Vega, Jamaica.

Sir Thomas Lynch, Governor of Jamaica.*

The following extracts from the land records were evidently made in 1733, as appears by the endorsement, and the paper bears a Georgian water-mark. They are written on both sides of ten folio sheets, also in the Editor's possession.

St. Paul's, Nevis.*

The late Mrs. Arthur Shand wrote me 27 May 1909: "I got Canon Shepherd's young daughter to go with me to the churchyard, and by scraping off moss, etc., managed to get at the inscriptions. Several of the fine old very large slate slabs are broken up and lying in different parts of the churchyard, and some few gravestones have been used for building purposes. I have been inquiring about private burial-grounds, but there appear to be none here."

There are eight tablets in this Church, of which the first four are on the walls of the chancel and the remaining four elsewhere. There are also six floor-stones, making, with ten stones in the churchyard, a total of twenty-four memorials.

1. This monument is erected by John Tobin Crosse, in memory of Mary Crosse, his late wife—she departed this transitory life on the 26th day of December, in the year of our Lord 1804 & in the 44th year of her age. (Six lines omitted.)

2. Near this place are deposited the remains of the Revd: William Green, late rector of the parishes of St: Paul's Charlestown & St: George's Gingerland, who departed this life on the 26th April, 1811, in the 38th year of his age. (One line omitted.)

He is not in Fothergill's "List of Emigrant Ministers."

3. Near this sacred monument are deposited the remains of William Bowrin who died on the 19th day of December 1816, aged 70 years. And of his affectionate wife Jane Butler, who departed this life on the 11th of April 1777, at the early age of 30 years (several lines omitted). Likewise the remains of Joice Butler mother to the above Jane, who died on the 22nd April 1798, aged 85 years.

* Communicated, June 1909, by the late Mrs. Arthur Shand of Nevis. The notes by the Editor. The rough sketches of the shields were I believe executed by Miss Shepherd.

This monument is erected by WILLIAM only son of the above WILLIAM & JANE BOWRIN (etc.).

1854, Jan. 1. At St. Kitts, aged 28, Grace-Wilhelmina, only dau. of the l. Wm. Bowrin, esq. of the Paradise Estate, Nevis, and granddau. of Rear-Adm. Gourly, R.N. ("G.M.," 329.) Adm. G. d. 29 Aug. a. 88. (Ibid., 515.)

Protheroe, Ph. Protheroe, and Robert Claxton of England, Merchants, his two plantations in St. John's parish called North Wales and Williams's. The release of 27 Dec. states that Butler Claxton, deceased, and his son, trading as Claxton and Son, owed £5151 to Messrs. Protheroe and Claxton. (Deeds penes General Pemberton.)

I think this 52 should be 32. Her husband was only 32 in 1820, and she would hardly be twenty years his senior.

At St. Mary Cayon, St. Kitts, is the baptism: "1788, 1 and 5 Jan. Daniel Gateward son of William & Anne Davis," and by the date this should be the Bishop, but there is on the other hand the burial: "1788, Jan. 5. Daniel Gateward son of William & Ann Davis."

In St. Paul's, Charlestown, is recorded the burial: "1837, June 14. Thomas Seaton Pemberton Davis. Charlestown. ab^{t} 14 years."

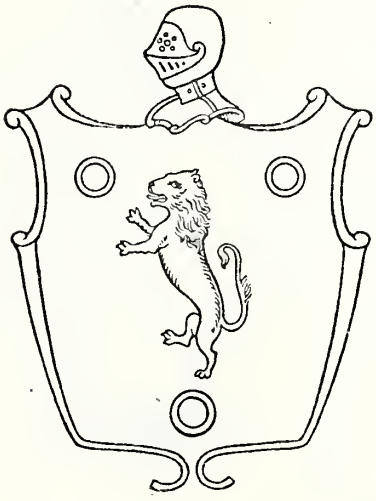
21. (A large stone slab.) Sacred to the memory of Mrs. Sarah Broadbelt who died in child-bed on the 15th July 1802. (Followed by a long but very indistinct inscription.—A. H. S.)

The Brodbelts or Broadbelts of Nevis are all descended from Lawrence B. of that Island, whose will was proved 9 April 1660 (P.C.C., 136, May). They resided in St. John's Parish, and it is hoped that their pedigree may appear later.

In St. Catherine's Cathedral, Jamaica (Roby, 31), is a tablet with arms to Francis Rigby Brodbelt, M.D. (born 9 October 1746, died 9 December 1795), but his parentage is not given.

There is another tablet in the same church to Mrs. Anna Maria Eldred, wife of Mr. Edward Eldred, surgeon. She died 21 December 1761, aged 19, and was dau. of Daniel Brodbelt, Esq., by Anna Maria his wife. She may have been sister to Dr. F. R. Brodbelt.

Lawrence Brodbelt of Nevis, at his death about 1727, left a son Daniel Brodbelt, and the latter may be identical with Daniel Brodbelt of Jamaica.



22. (Large slate slab, much decayed, with coat of arms.) Mary wife of John Woodley, of Nevis, merchant, who departed .... 1722 .... Mary Woodley .... 1713 & died Septem. .... John Woodley born June 1715 & died May ye 16th 1760. John Vincetts Woodley April ye 6th 1720 & died Septem: ye 4th year following.

Arms.—.... A lion rampant between three annulets ....

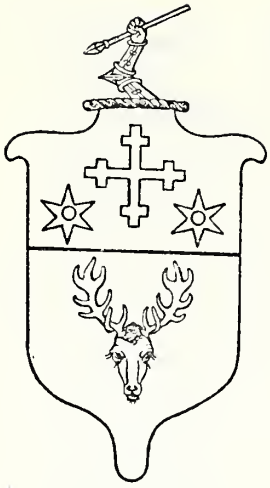
William Woodley of Nevis in 1678 had two children then living. One of these was, I believe, William Woodley of St. Kitts, who was aged 32 in 1707 (which would give his birth about 1675), and the other was probably the John Woodley who was of St. Paul's, Nevis. A pedigree of the St. Kitts branch of the family appeared in "Antigua," iii., 256. The arms used were: Sable, a chevron between three owls Argent. Crest.—An owl.

A William Woodley matriculated from Queen's Coll., Oxon., 21 April 1738, aged 16, as son of John of Nevis, esq. (Foster). His father was Member of Assembly 1718, 1724, and 1730-1. William appears to have married, 25 January 1749, Lucretia, dau. of Mrs. Anne Newth of Hunsdon, co. Herts, widow, deceased. ("G.M.") Lucretia was named 1743 in the will of her uncle Tobias Wall, formerly of Nevis and St. Kitts, then of Southampton. She died in childbed 11 May 1750, aged 28. (See Vol. I., 182.) William was residing at Rougham Hall, near Bury St. Edmunds, Suffolk, in 1756. He was afterwards named as of Eccles, co. Norfolk, in wills of 1767, 1771, 1784, and 1792, and his natural son John was named in 1767. His cousin William, the M.P. and Governor, was also residing in Norfolk, and some confusion between the two men has arisen on account of their Christian names being the same.



23. Here lye interred the Bodies of | Ann and Katherine Thompson | Daughters of Archibald Thompson Eſq: | of this Iſland. | They died on the 24th day of October | in the year 1771, Ann in her 18th, and | Katherine in her 15th year. | They were seized almost in the same | hour by an unrelenting and fatal fever | and the same day they both expired, | And in the same Grave | they lye buried together. | Lovely and pleaſant were they in their lives | And in death they were not Separated.

Arms.—Argent, a buck's head cabossed Gules, attired Or, on a chief Azure, a cross crosslet fitchée of the third between two mullets of six points of the first, pierced, Azure [Thompson, Burke's "Armory"].
Crest.—An arm in armour couped at the shoulder, holding in the hand a spear.

Notices of Births, Marriages, and Deaths from the "St. Christopher Gazette and Caribbean Courier," and the "St. Christopher Advertiser and Weekly Intelligencer," Basseterre.

The enclosed Notices of Births, Marriages, and Deaths are taken from the two St. Christopher newspapers at the British Museum. Where each paper has the same notice I have given only one.

From the "Gazette" are the names of the Members of the House of Assembly and a list of the Jurors and Constables. A comparison of the other lists of Jurors and Constables with that I enclose might bring to light a few more names of residents.

Notes and Queries.

MADAN OF NEVIS.

An excellent tabular pedigree of eleven generations of this family has just been privately printed. Martin Madan settled in Nevis about 1687, and married Penelope, third dau. and coheiress of Col. Sir James Russell, the Lieut.-Governor. It has now been proved that Martin's great-grandfather was Richard, the Mayor of Waterford in 1599. One of Martin's grandsons was Spencer Madan, the well-known Bishop of Peterborough, and his descendants are now numerous.

LUCAS FAMILY.

Benjamin Lucas (circa 1750—1822) was President of Dominica, and Nathaniel Lucas, his contemporary (Charles Kingsley's grandfather), Judge of Barbadoes. They were related (perhaps brothers) and belonged to the well-known family of St. John's, Colchester.

Can anyone help me to connect them either with the Lucases of Antigua or those of Mount Lucas, Phillipstown, King's County, Ireland? Nathaniel Lucas, who died at St. John's, Antigua, 1753, may possibly have been their father.

WEBB OF JAMAICA. (Ante, 96.)

Thomas Webb of the parish of Saint Elizabeth in the county of Cornwall, and Island of Jamaica (by his will, proved 3rd September 1845), was possessed of "Keyneshem" in the parish of Manchester, and "Chew Magna" in the adjoining parish of St. Elizabeth. He resided at "Chew Magna" up to the time of his death. His will is dated 19th April 1844. He married Frances Faith, and had a son William, who resided with him at "Chew Magna" up to the time of his decease. Thomas Webb was the son of John Rackam Webb of the parish of Manchester, whose will is dated 15th August 1829, and was proved 1st April 1830. Besides his son Thomas he had two daughters—Mrs. Mary Clark, wife of Robert Padmore Clark of the city of Bristol in Great Britain, and Mrs. Hester Medley, the wife of George Bondley Medley, at that time resident in Jamaica. John R. Webb mentions in his will William Morrish of Keynshem in the county of Somerset in England, also a nephew John Morrish.

John Rackam Webb was the brother and residuary devisee and sole executor of William Webb of Saint Elizabeth, whose will is dated 24th September 1801, and was proved 21st December 1802. William Webb in his will mentions his sisters Elizabeth Hitchman, Mary Rackam Charleton, and Hester Morrish, all of the kingdom of Great Britain.

Bertrand of Dominica.*

Authorities from which this Pedigree is compiled are as follows: "Notices Genealogiques de Genève par Galliffe" in British Museum; a grant of arms to J. P. Bertrand alias J. P. D'Angleberne, 1820, Heralds' College, London; information from W. W. Bertrand, Esq., of Roy Cove, West Falkland Islands, and the Registrar of Dominica; also a small pedigree supplied by Mr. J. Platel of Newcastle, which completes the identity of the Charles Bertrand of Galliffe with the Charles Bertrand of Dominica and father of Harriott D'Angleberne Bertrand.

The Bertrand family, originally from Montpellier, emigrated to Geneva, Antoine Bertrand with his two sons becoming burghers in 1704, and the cause of their emigration being presumably the revocation of the Edict of Nantes, 1685. The family appear to have been considered "Noble," and they intermarried with the best Genevan families. Pierre Bertrand, the first of the line, must have been born about 1620. The Bertrand arms are probably of French origin, as they bear a great similarity to several other French coats, notably that of Romilly. They are: Argent, on a field Vert a bull Sable, collared and belled Or, upon a chief Azure a crescent between two estoiles of the first. CREST.—A crescent superimposed upon three plumes argent.

Antoine Bertrand, fourth of the line, acquired about 1770 large estates in Dominica, which were chiefly in the parishes of St. Patrick and St. David, and adjoining the River Wayanery. One of these estates was called "Geneva."

He appears to have had a brother Charles, who, when his own sons Charles and Antoine (?) died without issue, adopted John Peter D'Angleberne, a refugee French officer from Martinique, who married his daughter Harriet and assumed the name of Bertrand (1820). The story goes that he had to fly from Martinique, having killed a soldier who had insulted his wife. He possessed or inherited the estates Taberie, Carse o'Gowry, and Felicitée Hall.

Edmund Rufus Bertrand, his son, married an English lady of good family, and had a large family, most of whom, however, died s.p. The estates were finally inherited by Mr. William Wickham Bertrand, who had acquired estates in the Falkland Islands. On inheriting and finding that the estates were not only heavily encumbered, but that the family mansion had been burnt in a hurricane, which had also much damaged the estate, he allowed it to be sold, under the Encumbered Estates Act, to Henri St. Hilaire, and they are now owned by a family of the name of Potter. In the English grant of arms, either by accident or design, the bull is changed to a ram, and the helmet surmounting the escutcheon is that of a baron, i.e., full faced with golden bars. Any information as to the places named or to the family in general other than the above will be most acceptable, more especially—

(1) Any details as to the life and antecedents of J. P. D'Angleberne.

(2) Any dates of births and deaths not given in pedigree.

(3) Existence of any direct or collateral descendants of any of the persons named.

The Washingtons of Barbados.*

Although no connection has yet been established between the Washingtons of Barbados and the Washingtons of Virginia, it may be well to place on record such information as is attainable respecting the Barbadian family, who held a good position in that Island.

In the October Number of the "Register of the New England Historic Genealogical Society" (Boston, Mass) was printed a letter from Theodore Pargiter of London, dated 2 August 1654, in which the writer refers to John Washington of Barbados as his cousin. This John Washington has not, so far as one knows, been properly identified, and Mr. Waters makes scant reference to his existence on p. 32, and in a footnote thereto, in the "Ancestry of Washington," published at Boston, U.S.A., in 1889. At the same time it is to be noted that at the date of John Washington's presence in Barbados, families mentioned in the "Ancestry" as connections of the Virginia family were living in the Island and doing business with it from London. There were Pargiters (pp. 25, 31, 32, 43), Rumballs (32, 33), and Tyrrells (42). The notable family of Codrington was connected with the Washingtons, through the Guises of the Baronetage. The first Virginian settler married a Pope, and there was a family of Pope in Barbados. In each case the Popes were of Bristol. In 1633 a Philippata Curtis died in Guiana, who was probably of the family of Philip Curtis of Islip, near Banbury, whose daughter married Sir John Washington (see Commission, 9 Dec. 1633, to Roger North, a Creditor of Philip Curtis, late in Amazonia, in parts, deceased, at Somerset House).

It may have been from a traditional interest of their family in Barbados that Lawrence and George Washington visited the Island in November and December 1751, rather than Jamaica or some other Island of the Caribbeans, when they sought a change of climate for the elder brother, then a dying man. Lawrence, it must be remembered, had also served in the West Indies as a British Naval Officer, under Admiral Vernon, in whose honour he had named his grant of land Mount Vernon.

Subjoined are some extracts from the Records of Barbados, made by Mr. Sinckler and another, to whom access has been readily granted by Mr. Lindsay Haynes, the Registrar of the Colony, in whose keeping the old documents have loving care.

On a floor slab :—

Sir Charles Payne
Knight and Baronet
Major General of
His Majesty's
Leeward Carribee Islands
Dyed the 21 Day of December
1744
Aged 62 Years.

Buried Dec. 22d Sir Charles Payne. (Parish Register.)

Capt. Samuel Payne was living at St. Kitts in or before 1656. (Egerton MS. 2395, Brit. Museum.)

Capt. Philip Payne signed a petition of the planters of St. Kitts in January 1659. In 1669 he was one of the Commissioners appointed to receive back the English quarter of the Island. In 1673 it was reported that his estate and that of Capt. Sam. Payne had been devastated by the French since the declaration of peace. In 1683 and 1686 Lieut. Abraham Payne was a Member of the Assembly. In 1707-8 Stephen Payne, Esq., aged 47, was entered in the census, and in 1711 styled "Colonel," and of the parish of St. Thomas. This Stephen's parentage is unknown, but he was probably son or grandson of either the above Philip or Samuel. His wife's name is also unknown, but he had several sons, of whom the second, Charles, was created a baronet in 1737. The Paynes are supposed to have come from Lavington in Wilts, Dorset, or Jersey. (See vol. iii. of "Antigua.")

On a floor slab :—

Here lies interred ye Body of Captn
John Pogson of Horncastle in the County of Lincoln in the Kingdm of Engld who departed ys life ye 29th day of May 1686
also Hester his wife who departed ye 30th day of 9ber 1696
And with Ym lies interred their two Grand Sons namely
Freeman Pogson who departed ye 24th day of July 1704 when but 3 months old
And John Pogson Junr. who departed
June ye 20th 1720 in ye 23d Year of his Age.

The copy of this printed in Vol. I., p. 8, was evidently abbreviated by Mr. Darnell Davis, as the present one gives the ages of the sons which he omitted.

In the churchyard :—

Here lyeth the Body of Michael Lambert Esqr.
Majr. General of the Leeward Islands
And sometime
Lieut. Governor of St. Christophers
He died the 6th day of March 172$\frac{3}{4}$
In the 70th year of his Age.
Here also lyeth the Body of Frances his youngest Daughter and wife of Charles Pym Esq.
who died the 9th day of Novr 1724
In the 20th year of her Age.

The arms on this, as noted in 1879 by Mr. N. D. Davis, were: . . . . per chevron . . . . three lambs. CREST.—A griffin.

Lambert was appointed in 1707 Lieut.-Governor of St. Kitts. His will was dated 1 March 1723 and recorded in the Island. He owned several estates, which apparently passed to his widow Priscilla, who was living in 1753, when she owned three plantations in St. Thomas, Middle Island. He also possessed the "New Invention" of 106 acres in the French quarter and the "College" of 200 acres. He left no sons, but three daughters and coheiresses:—

I. Susannah, married first Major Rich. Holmes, Member of Council of St. Kitts, who died in London in 1725 (will proved 13 October),* by whom she had Rich., Priscilla, and Martha. She married secondly John Douglas, Esq., of St. Kitts, whose will was proved 1748 (359, Strahan), and had an eldest son and heir, John St. Leger Douglas. She died at Rickmansworth, Herts. Will dated 1750 (323, Greenly).

II. Margaret, married Col. James Weatherill of Antigua, and had two sons, Lambert Weatherill and Chas. Pym Weatherill, besides others. (See pedigree in "Antigua," vol. iii.)

III. Frances, the youngest, married Col. Chas. Pym of St. Kitts, Member of Council. Will proved 1741 (132, Spurway). They had Priscilla, only dau. and heiress, who married, 8 June 1742, Robert, 2nd Lord Romney. Lady Romney's will was dated 1746 and proved 1771 (126, Trevor), and she died 26 February 1771. In 1753 Lord Romney owned "Pym's Bay" estate in St. George's, Basseterre, and his wife had one-third of a plantation in St. Thomas, Middle Island, formerly that of her grandfather Michael Lambert.

The following inscriptions were copied in 1879 by Mr. N. Darnell Davis. The Rector writes, 8 June 1911: "We can find nothing of the stones to John Helden, Mrs. Susanna Phipps, Archibald Esdaile, or Col. Stephen Payne. The stones to Capt. Sam. Jefferson and Dr. John Hutchinson are in good condition. There is an estate called Hutchinsons in the parish." I wonder who was responsible for the destruction of the above memorials to the dead?

Here lieth the body of Capt SAMUEL JEFFERSON, who deceased the 12th day of December Anno Dom. 1649.

I think this must be the second oldest tomb in the Island, Sir Tho. Warner's being dated 1648. John Jeaffreson, a Master Mariner from Pettistree in Suffolk, arrived at St. Kitts in 1624 in the ship "Hopewell," which he commanded. In 1625, when Warner obtained the King's commission, Jeaffreson's name was inserted as his Lieutenant. Capt. Samuel Jeaffreson, a brother of John, settled the "Red House Plantation," and left, with other issue, a son Samuel, who removed about 1669 to Antigua, and whose son, also Samuel, was in 1678 Member of Council for St. Kitts. Very little is known of this branch. ("Antigua," ii., 106.) John's descendants or heirs were seated at Dullingham House, Cambridgeshire.

Mrs SUSANNA PHIPPS, 1686. See Vol. I., p. 75, for this.

Here lyeth the bodies of Colonel STEPHEN PAYNE, who departed this life the 10th day of September 1711, in the 51st year of his age.

And also of his sons STEPHEN and SAMUEL PAYNE, who departed this life in the 7th and 10th years of their age.

Here lyeth interr'd the body of JOHN HELDEN, son of John Helden of this island, Esqr, who departed this life the 7th of June 1722, aged 2 years, 2 months, and 19 days.

* My note says P.C.C., but I have not yet found the will.—EDITOR.

Accounts relating to Aliens' Property in the Leeward Islands,

CONFISCATED IN 1651—1654.

[Egerton MS. 2395, Fo. 54.]

Pursuant to the Act of Parliament of 1650,* confiscating the property of all aliens trading or residing in the W.I., Sir George Ayscue, on his arrival with the fleet at Barbados in 1651-2, seized all the Dutch shipping there trading without licence.

Later, in 1654, the Prize Commissioners, who arrived with the fleet under Penn and Venables, appear to have taken possession of all storehouses belonging to Dutch merchants, as well as of their goods, book debts, and other assets.

* I have a copy of this Act, black letter, seven small folios. [Editor.]

Mr. Edward Winslow wrote to Secretary Thurloe from Barbados 16 March 1654: "You told us of a great parcell of sugar was ready for our use, which was due upon the prizes taken by sir Geo. Ascue, we found not a penny in readyness, but abroade in such hands, as were not well affected for nothing; having had the use of large sums for these three yeares, and upon that foundation raised fine estates." (Thurloe's "State Papers.")

The following prize accounts relating to these transactions are bound up in a large volume of Colonial State Papers, which formerly belonged to Thomas Povey, purchased by the trustees of the British Museum at Sotheby's in 1875 (now Egerton MS. 2395).

The lists are invaluable, as they give the names of most of the more important settlers during a period when so few similar records exist. The first census of the Leeward Islands was not made until 1678, some twenty-five years later.

Monumental Inscriptions in England relating to West Indians.*

BATH ABBEY CHURCH.

During a recent visit to Bath this year (1911), the opportunity arose of making a more careful study of the inscriptions in the Abbey Church. It appears that when Sir Gilbert Scott restored the building, between 1860 and 1870, all the monuments were taken down and rearranged: all superfluous portions removed, only the coats of arms and inscriptions being retained: and the tablets were then refixed. The old pews were subsequently removed and the flooring taken up, thus exposing many slabs previously lost to sight. In the year 1872 the then clerk, Charles P. Russell, carefully copied the 847 floor inscriptions and tricked the coats of arms. Most of these were again hidden when the new pews were fixed, but the list of them is carefully preserved, and from it I have copied several additional inscriptions.

When the floor-slabs give no additional information, other than that on the wall tablets, I have omitted such inscriptions. The numbers refer to the Abbey List. "B.C." is for "Bath Chronicle."

North aisle, north wall, opposite the fourth bay:—

Sacred to the Memory of
ELIZABETH, relict of the above
MATTHEW MUNRO Esq^{r}.
Who, after a life spent in
The conscientious discharge of every duty,
And the practice of every Christian Virtue,
Resigned her Spirit to Him who gave it,
On the 13th day of March 1818, aged 45 years.

Within six feet of the above:—

Sacred to the Memory of
CHARLOTTE ISABELLA, youngest daughter of
MATTHEW and ELIZABETH MUNRO, who in the bloom of youth
after a long illneſs which she bore without a murmur, exchanged this life for a better
on the 23rd day of March 1815.

The M.I. to Mathew Munro has been already given (I., 76). His tablet, now in the south aisle, was no doubt separated from the above during the restoration. In the floor of nave is a slab with all three names on it, which gives the daughter's age as 18.

1818, March 19. Friday, died in Pulteney-street, Mrs. Munro, widow of Matthew M. esq; of the island of Granada, and eldest dau. of Thos. Townsend, esq; of Pickwick House; etc.

* Continued from p. 190.

Notes and Queries.

PARISH REGISTERS IN BARBADOS.*

Each Parish has its own Records of Births, Marriages, and Deaths, ancient and modern. Under the registration system introduced in the last century, transcripts of the modern registers are regularly sent to the Registration Office.

Besides the old registers kept in each parish there are books in the Registration Office, Bridgetown, containing copies of the entries in the old registers of the parishes. At what period this was carried out I cannot say, but I am under the impression that it was done before some of the parish registers perished. Even as it is, there are gaps in most of these entries, in some cases for considerable periods.

The following are the years from which the earliest entries date, in the registers preserved in the Registration Office at Bridgetown:—

St. Michael's	1648	St. Peter	1780	St. John	1657
Christ Church	1637	St. Lucy	1747	St. Joseph	1718
St. James	1693	St. George	1830	St. Andrew	?
St. Thomas	1728	St. Philip	1698

NOTES.

(Extract from an article on the Milwards of Old Swinford, co. Worcester.) A grandson of the Tho. Milward of the Civil War time, a John Milward, D.D., of Oxford, obtained the living of St. Thomas, Middle Island, and a sugar estate called "Godwins," to which Island he emigrated with Mr. Harry Freeman, a creole (Freeman of Farley Court, Bucks), whose sister he married ("Herald and Genealogist," i.). He matriculated from Pembroke Hall, Oxford, 24 March 1670-1, aged 16, as son of Tho. Milward of Wollescote, co. Worc. (Foster.)

1677, Nov. 1. The Bishop of L. has selected 6 priests who are embarking. Mr. Milward. (Col. Cal., 174.)

1678, Jan. 24. Gov. Stapleton writes that he has presented Mr. Milward to St. Chr. (Col. Cal., 212). He married a dau. of Col. Wm. Freeman of St. Christopher, one of the very early settlers. He was buried in the east cloister of Westminster Abbey 14 April 1703. Will dated 3 April and proved 29 April 1703 (Chester).

George Milward inherited an estate in St. Christopher in 1707.

There is a letter from Wm. Freeman at St. Kitts, dated 19 Jan. 1682-3, saying that his younger brother Henry had lately come from France, and there is a petition of the latter stating he was now of age. It is probable that John Milward had been his tutor, as Henry was only 17 in 1678, the year they arrived at St. Kitts.

[1] Rev. John Merac went out 16 Feb. 1727-8 (Fothergill). He was LL.B. Cant., and wrote, 13 Feb. 1730-31, from St. Christopher: "Three years ago I was presented to the rectory of St. Tho., Middle Island, and now have a parish in the French grounds" (Fulham Palace Records).

[2] Rev. Robert Pemberton. On referring to Vol. I., 268, it will be noticed that he was Rector of St. James', Nevis, 1787—95, then of St. George, St. Kitts, 1795, till his death 1812.

[3] Rev. John Audain. See ante, I., 223, for a letter of his, dated 16 Oct. 1802 at Roseau, Dominica, he being then Rector of Roseau and St. George's and senior J.P.

1825, Oct. 1. At St. Eustatius, the Rev. John Audain. (St. Chr. Almanac.)

[4] Rev. Joseph Warner. Perhaps identical with the son of Daniel Warner, Treasurer of Antigua, baptized 23 Nov. 1758 at St. John's and living 1788, who died a bachelor.

* The Rector writes 20 June 1910: "We have no printed Registers, and the old ones we have are in a bad state. I am getting them transcribed into another book. I am sending a list of the Rectors since 1700, being the only list I know of." The Editor has inserted the name of John Milward and added the notes. This list should have appeared on p. 208, but was mislaid.

[5] Edward Brazier, son of Edward Brazier of St. Christopher's, W.I., Esq., matriculated from Wadham College, Oxford, 22 May 1792, aged 18; B.A. 1796, M.A. 1800. (Foster.)

[6] Joseph Plura Bartrum, son of Thomas Bartrum of Exeter, Devon, gent., matriculated from St. Edmund Hall, Oxford, 20 May 1816, aged 35. (Foster.)

[7] A Henry Warneford was Minister of Anguilla. (Clergy List of 1876.)

[8] Rev. Henry Jeremiah Dyson, second son of the Rev. Francis Dyson of Tedworth, Hants, matriculated from Merton College, Oxford, 3 March 1842, aged 18, B.A. 1845; Fellow of All Souls' College 1847—52, M.A. 1850, Vicar of Barking, Essex, 1851 until his death 27 March 1854. (Foster.) I think he must have gone out to St. Kitts on account of his health.

1854, March 27. At St. Kitts. the Rev. Henry Jeremiah Dyson, Vicar of Barking, Essex (1851). He was of All Souls' College, Oxford, B.A. 1845, M.A. 1850. His wife Matilda died on the preceding day. ("G.M.," 663.)

[9] Rev. Darius Davey. In Clifton Churchyard is a M.I. to the family of Darius Davey and Eliza his wife of Antigua. These were no doubt the parents of the above. He was also Curate of St. John's, Antigua, 1844-5, and Rector of St. Philip's 1865-6. I don't know where he was 1845—55.

My great-grandfather Stephen Adye married Clara Payne, who was cousin to Ralph Willett. They had 8 children—Stephen Payne, John Willett, Abraham, Ralph, Clara, Polly, Patty (died in London 1820), and ? Mary.

Abraham had one dau. Eliza Adye, who was educated at Blackheath and being sent out passed her Parents on the voyage. I think he was a Physician and Ralph Attorney-General at Grenada.*

Uncle Willett married Miss Brouncker. Besides their 2 sons they had a daughter who died early. I think her name was Anna. He afterwards married a Miss Wilson.

The other Miss Brouncker married the Hon. Capt. Finch of the Navy. She was the particular friend of Aunt Vivion, and lived at Broom Hall, Shooters Hill.

St Christophers, July 30th, 1795.

My Dear Brother,

I wrote to you in May last in consequence of the very melancholy event which you had announced to my mother .... our late worthy and respected kinsman and benefactor, "you who have been the child of his adoption from your infancy." Our poor sister's death. Our debts of £800 .... the legacy left my mother .... the additional allowance you make her .... your donation for mourning.

I am encamped out of Town with the Militia. We have been for upwards of twelve months past under great Apprehension of being attacked by the French, and our fears have been much encreased since the Enemy has been in possession of St Eustatius, which is devided from the Island only by a narrow Channel of about three leagues breadth, across which they may easily invade us in Boats. In consequence of this, Detachments of the Militia are encamped near the Coast, opposite to St Eustatius and in other Places; A Corps of Negroes has been embodied and are training to Arms, and every precaution taken to prevent them landing, for if they once affect that an inconceivable Deal of Mischief must ensue; and the Colony be ruined although they may not acquire the Sovereignty of it. We have very few regular Troops here, not enough to defend even the fortress of Brimstone Hill without the Aid of some Militia. This last Body therefore have and still continue to undergo very fatiguing Duty, and as it consists of every Male Inhabitant of the Island, Occupations of all Kinds are practically suspended, and every man's Interest must of course be much impaired. It has been productive of much expence and Inconvenience to me as well as others; however, the necessity of the Case must be submitted to; and if we are finally successfull in preserving the Island our private sufferings will sit lightly upon us.

Our new General† arrived here a few days ago, and seems determined to use every exertion for the Defence of the Island, and we place great Confidence in the Fame of his professional Abilities, a military governor in times like this is certainly preferable to any other, let his Character be high as can be in other Respects.

* Mrs. Ram has confused the names. Ralph was the doctor, and had an only daughter, alluded to in his letter of 1795. Abraham was a barrister and the Attorney-General.

† Probably Major-General Leigh.—Editor.

Our good old Mother has enjoyed a great Share of good Health for these last six months, notwithstanding the sorrows she has encountered. She has lived in more ease and quiet than she formerly did, and endeavour is made by my wife as well as myself to make her happy. She writes to you by this Fleet. My Sisters are all well and request their Affectionate Remembrance to yourself, Mrs. Willett and Family. My Wife and my little Girl (the only child I have living) beg to add theirs also. We are all concerned to hear of the illness of your dear daughter,* and sincerely hope she may have found all the Benefits you could have wished from your journey to Bristol and is long ere this perfectly recovered.

As you have mentioned in your letter that you will apprize us when to draw for the Legacies left us by our late worthy Kinsman; permit me; before I conclude to say a few words upon the Subject. I my dear Brother have no right to call upon you—I owe you alass more than I can ever hope to repay, but if you allow me that Liberty I should wish to appropriate it to the discharge of some Debts in England, which though they may be of too longstanding to be recoverable by law, have for that reason a stronger claim upon my feelings. I have however taken the liberty of enclosing you a memorandum of a few professional Books which will engross but a small part of it, and if when convenient you will take the trouble of ordering them out to me I shall be infinately obliged. Books I cannot do without, and I have long lamented my Inability to send regularly for them.

You have said nothing in your letter of our poor Brother Stephen's† family, if any of them are near you pray be kind enough to say everything Affectionate to them for all here. I should be Happy to have some Account of them. Adieu my dear Brother. Present my Cordial and Affectionate good wishes to Mrs Willett and your Children, and Believe me ever most faithfully and affectly yrs.

July 30th, 1795, St Kitts. R. Adye.

St Christophers, Septr 4th, 1799.

My dear Brother,

The death of our Mother .... her inquiry for Abraham .... our sister Patty .... The death of my wife's brother, the Comptroller of the Customs here, who departed this Life the 1st instant.

My wife unites in best and most affectionate regards to yourself and your Sons with

Yours most faithfully,
Ralph Adye.

Sept. 17th. The above, my dear Brother, is a duplicate of my letter by the last Packet, to which I can at present make no addition, though I have much to say to you, for my mind is not yet in a proper frame for matters of Business.

One circumstance, however, as partly connected with the melancholy contents of the above, you will I trust excuse my hinting to you. Our poor father's Ashes have since his decease remained uncovered by any Tombstone and our dear old Mother's remains are now deposited in the same place, if you will have the goodness to send a Stone out, I will have it properly erected.

The family all unite in Love and best Regards to you and yours. My wife is still very poorly.

Yours most Affly
Ralph Adye.

[No date. Water-mark of 1812.]

My dear Stephen,

I know I deserve to be thought a very idle fellow for not having written to you before, but will now try and make amends for my long neglect.

I shall tell you first of my own affairs and my father's. You know when you left England he was about to put his affairs in the hands of trustees, which has been done, and he is living upon a £1000 a year till all the debts are paid. Poor Merly looks very miserable—the pictures and books are all gone, the former did not sell owing to the great scarcity of ready money at that time, indeed we bought in many of them, so that the amount of what were sold came to little more than £7000.

The Books sold remarkably well—the whole of them came to £13,580—some of the specimens of early print such as Caxton's Bible and the other books of that date went, some of them, for two and three hundred guineas each, yet with all these sales I am afraid it will be a long time before the debt to the Trust, which is very large, will be paid off.

My father, I am happy to say, has hitherto kept his health and spirits as well as could be expected under such an accumulation of misfortunes. With regard to myself, I am living as economically as I can and am studying the Law. I intend putting on the gown and wig in about two months and go the western circuit.

[The above is from a copy in the late Sir John Adye's notebook. The back of the letter with the address was missing. The writer was probably Henry Ralph Willett, born 1786, M.A. Oxford and of Lincoln's Inn, 2nd son of John Willett Adye (later Willett), the then owner of Merly. "Stephen" was Stephen Payne Gallwey, a first-cousin. I do not know what misfortunes had overtaken the family apart from the depreciation of W.I. property. The sale of Ralph Willett's library, etc., occupied seventeen days in December 1813, so the above letter was probably written early in 1814. The father did not long survive, but died in 1815 at Bath.—EDITOR.]

13 Feb. 1817.

Dear Henry,

I am sure you will be much concerned to receive bad news of my poor brother John; he was seized with an apoplectic fit on Monday last in the Street at Fareham and expired shortly after.

His Brother in law Colonel Bradley wrote to Vivian and mentioned that the presence of any of our family would be extremely acceptable.

The funeral is to take place Saturday, as it cannot be deferred longer. I have taken my place for Fareham, and shall set out to-morrow morning.

We have heard from Stephen in his own handwriting; he, however, mends but slowly.

I am, dr Harry, yours truly,

Thursday, 16 . . . . St. J. P. ADYE.

[1] Capt. Jones and most of his troop were in a ship which was driven back by a storm. In Barbados two troops were raised and placed under the command of Capt. Haines (son of the Major-General) and Capt. Philip Carpenter. The horses were eaten at Hispaniola before embarking for Jamaica. [EDITOR.]

To the above interesting article by Miss Nembhard the Editor adds the following supplementary notes:—

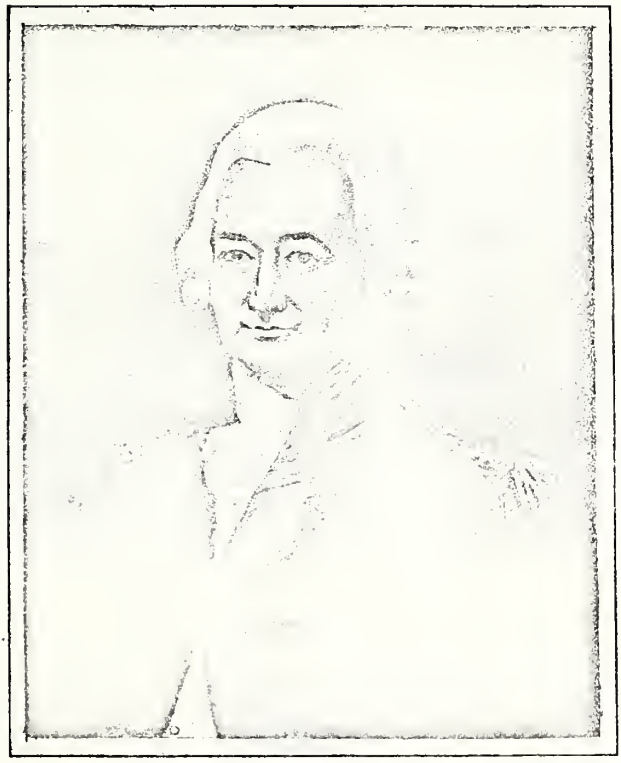
The said five English Regiments were subsequently raised in the W.I. to about 1000 men each. A sixth regiment of Barbadians was commanded by Col. Edward Doyley, a seventh of Leeward Islands men by Col. Richard Holdip, and an eighth under Col. John Humfrey arrived from England the end of 1655 as a reinforcement. The seventh regiment was soon after disbanded.

In a petition of 1660 Capt. Gregory Butler, one of the Commissioners under Venables, stated that he lost his brother the Adjutant-General and six servants, and disbursed £1200 (Thurloe, vii., 912).

Col. John Humfrey's Regiment.

1655, Sept. 6. Major-General Robert Sedgwick writes from Barbados that he sailed from Plymouth on 11 July with a regiment of 800 men drawn out of the old regiments in England, with eight ships of war, and arrived at Barbados on 27 Aug. Capt. H. Maddison on board the Gift was sent on 7 Sept. to S[t] Christopher to get recruits with Joshua Wilson on board the Marmaduke (W.I. Cal., 96, 97).

On 14 Nov. he wrote that he arrived on 1 Oct. at Jamaica. Thirty men died of the flux, including Capt. Fenn of the Wildeman and Capt. Maddison of the Gift, who died at Barbados. Major-General Fortescue died about 20 Oct. and many officers are dead. There had been 700 deaths, also 50 of the new soldiers. Encloses list of men, women, and children in the Generals, Major-Generals, Col. Carters, Col. Bullers, Col. Doyles, Col. Holdippes, and Col. Humpheres regiments, 2194 well, 2316 sick, 172 women and children (Ib., p. 105). Col. Fortescue's regiment is not referred to. Doyley had reduced each regiment by two companies and disbanded the Leeward Islands one (Bridge, i., 217). "With Sedgewick went Col. Humfreys, the Son of him who carry'd the Sword before President Bradshaw at the King's Trial." He returned to England (Oldmixon's "British Empire in America," ii., 271, 273). Col. H. was named 11 May 1658 (W.I. Cal., p. 472). He returned to England and fought in Flanders (Thurloe). See ante, p. 54, for the will of Gilbert Bury, soldier in Capt. Sedgwick's company in the above regiment.



Sir Peter Parker Bart.
late Admiral of the Fleet.

Engraved by T. Blood from an Original Painting

London Published as the Act directs for the Europ.n Magazine by J. Sharpe Cornhill March.1.1812

Admiral Sir Peter Parker, Bart.

The Parker family in four generations supplied no less than five admirals, all noted men. Christopher died a Rear-Admiral in 1765, very aged. His son Peter, an "Irishman," was a Captain in 1747, and in 1757, in command of the "Woolwich," went out to the W.I. with Commodore John Moore,* Commander-in-Chief at the Leeward Islands.

In 1759 he took part in the abortive attack on Martinique and reduction of Guadaloupe,† returning in 1760 to England.

He married about 1759 Margaret, daughter of Walter Nugent, Esq., of "Nugents" in Antigua, who had died the previous year, leaving her a portion of £2000. Parker was knighted in 1772, and served as Commander-in-Chief at Jamaica 1777—82, receiving on his return a baronetcy. He eventually became Admiral of the Fleet in 1799, and died in Weymouth Street 21 December 1811 at the advanced age of 90. His portrait by Abbot is at Greenwich.

His two daughters both married West Indians (only one is mentioned in the "D.N.B."). Anne, born 3 May 1773, married, 10 September 1800, George Ellis of Jamaica, M.P., and died in 1862 in her 90th year. Antoinette married 1795 John Ellis, cousin of George, and died in 1829.

Sir Peter Parker, 2nd Bart. (grandson of the 1st Bart), in 1814 sold Nugents plantation to Chr. Codrington, after repayment of £8000 his grandfather had lent on mortgage.‡ He was killed in action at Baltimore the same year, aged 28, being then a Post Captain.

He was evidently first buried at Bermuda, as appears by the following entry from the parish register of St. George:§ "1815, April 2. Memorandum. This day the body of Sir Peter Parker was taken up at the request of Captain Edmund Palmer, R.N., one of his Executors, to be conveyed to England in the Hebrus frigate." The reinterment took place in St. Margaret's, Westminster. The baronetcy became extinct in 1869.

Lieut.-General W. Brayne, Governor of Jamaica, wrote, 18 April 1657, to the Protector:—

"The dets oweing to your highnes in the Caribe Islands wold have bin a very great assistance to us; but I had noe order to demand them; and I feare a great parte of them will be loste, the debtors dyeing, and theire estates imbezled." ("Thurloe's State Papers," vi., 212.)

THE EARLIEST WILL OF ST. KITTS.

Robert Barwicke of the Town and County of Southampton, yeoman, but at present resident in the ship The Plough of London, bound for England, 23 Sept. 4 Charles, 1628. To my wife Margaret, living in Southampton, the 30^l^ I left with her, the 30^l^ due as her fortune from her mother .... Cheason, a widow, living in the said town, and 30^l^ when my goods are sold. If she have a son 200^l^, if a dau. 100^l^. If either die then the legacy to be divided, and I give ¾ to my brother William B. and my sister Jane B., and ¼ to my brother Daniell B. 40^l^ out of the 200^l^ "to be laid out in provisions to be sent to my brother Daniell B. and my manservant at Saint Christophers." To the poor of Newport, I. of W., 5^l^ and of All Hallows, Southampton, 40s. My father Emanuell B. 10^l^. My mother Joyce B. 10^l^. To the three children of my sister Barnell Puckford 15^l^.

"Item forasmuch as the worshippfull my verie loving Master Captaine Thomas Warner hath been verie kind and loving unto me and hath benne the cause by whom I have gotten my estate in testimonie therefore of my thankfullness although I am not able to requite him, I do give and bequeath unto him one Beaver hatt of the best kind which I humblie intreat him to weare for my sake to be given unto him within one moneth next after his arrival in England."

To my kind mistress M^rs^ Rebecca Warner, wief to the said Capt. Tho. W., one beaver hat of 5^l^ after her arrival in England. To my well beloved friend M^r^ John ffeatley, Minister and Preacher, now aboard the good shipp Plough, 5^l^ after his arrival. My friend Chr. Havers 50s. John Underwood 50s. Wm. Snellgrove, chirurgeon, of the Plough, 40 lbs. of tobacco. To my Ex'or 50^l^ to be deducted from the profit of the labour of my servant Raph Reade, living upon the Isle of St. Christopher in the W. I. with my brother Daniell B., and the rest to be divided into equal parts, ½ to any child and ½ to my Ex'or and sister Jane B. My brother Wm. B., living in the Burrough of Southworke by London, shoomaker, sole Ex'or. Witnessed by John ffeatley, ffrancis Jeffrey, Nich. Burghes. Proved 26 Nov. 1628 by W. B. (102, Barrington).

In Egerton MS. 2395 is a copy of the Articles of Peace, dated 5 Sept. and 8 Nov. 1628, which were signed on 8 Nov. by Capt. Edward Warner, Governor of St. Christopher, and by George Molle and Godfrey Haverchampe, Esquires (the Commissioners appointed by the Earl of Carlile), and by Capt. Anthony Hylton, President of Mevis. Capt. Thos. Warner apparently had deputed his son Edward to act as Governor in his place during his absence. From Robert Barwicke's will it seems that Capt. Thos. Warner was still out in the W. I., possibly at some other island than St. Christopher. The "Plough" of London was evidently returning to that port with several planters and a cargo of tobacco. On p. 8 under the Featley Memoir nothing is said about the Rev. John Featley's return from St. Christopher in the "Plough," but there is a gap between 1625 and 1630.

Parish Register of St. George, Nevis.

Some ten years ago the Editor found among the ecclesiastical correspondence preserved in the muniment-room in Fulham Palace a transcript of a few years of the parish register of St. George's, Nevis. He made at the time a few extracts, which were printed in the "History of Antigua," vol. iii. As the records for the North American and West Indian Colonies were unsorted and in great confusion no further search was then made by him. Major-General R. Pemberton, however, examined these same papers about 1903, and then found them all properly arranged, and fortunately made a copy of the transcript. The Editor last October went carefully twice through the box of papers relating to the Leeward Islands, but could discover no trace of any parish registers. How or why the paper has been removed it is impossible to say, and the Bishop of London's Secretary could throw no light on the loss.

The Editor at once wrote to General Pemberton, with the gratifying result that the following copy of the transcript is now printed. The original parish register for the first quarter of the eighteenth century is no longer in existence, so that the transcript is unique.

All the entries were copied, but those relating to Pemberton were abstracted and placed separately. As these have been already printed in this Magazine, they have not been reinstated.

WEST INDIAN REGISTERS.*

In reply to your inquiry I do not find that we have any Transcripts from the Islands of St. Christopher and Nevis. The Registrar General has some Registers from St. Lucia 1898 to 1905, Barbados and the Windward and Leeward Islands 1804 to 1906.

Monumental Inscriptions in England relating to West Indians.*

ST. JAMES, BRISTOL.

"F.B.J." stands for "Farley's Bristol Journal."

The monument here to Sir James Russell, Knt., of Nevis has been fixed (probably during some so-called restoration) very high up above the first arch of the chancel facing the north aisle.

With the help of a ladder I endeavoured to decipher the inscription in 1909, but owing to the insufficient length of the ladder, the dirty encrusted surface of the stone, and bad light, was unsuccessful.

The photograph was taken for me by flashlight, and gives one a good idea of the condition of the tablet.

The inscription has been preserved in "Bristol Past and Present," ii., 44. In that book, however, it is not properly set out, so I have spaced the lines from the photograph as accurately as possible.

HERE LYETH THE BODY OF IAMES RUSSELL
KNT. LATE OF NEVIS, ONE OF THE FIRST SETTLERS IN THAT ISLAND WHO WAS Y[E] FIRST
MAYOR† AND COILONEL THERE, AND AFTER BY COM--MISSION OF KING CHARLES 2ND (BEARING
DATE Y[E] 12TH DAY OF SEPTR IN Y[E] 13TH YEERE OF HIS REIGN) APPOINTED GOVERNO[R] OF Y[E]
SAID ISLAND, & SO CONTINUED TILL 1671;
BY WHOSE WISDOM AND VALO[R] (UNDER GOD)
IT WAS PRESERVED, WHEN THAT & Y[E] REST OF
THOSE ISLANDS WERE ENDANGERED BY THE FRENCH AND DUTCH, IN 1666; WHO, AFTER OBTAINING LEAVE OF HIS MAJESTY TO COME FOR ENGLAND, HERE DEPARTED THIS LIFE Y[E] 15TH DAY OF NOVEMBER 1674,
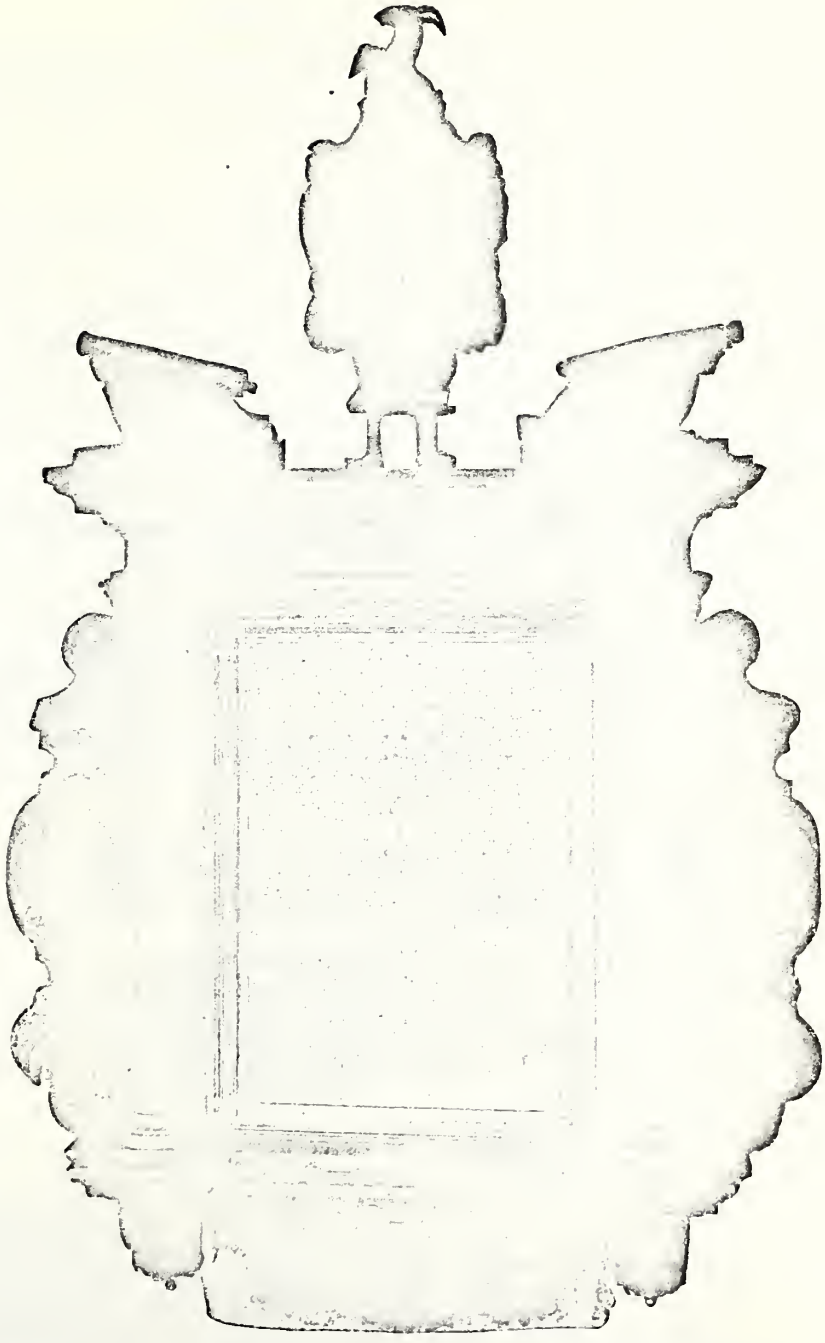
AGED 74 YEARS.

* Continued from p. 233.

† Error for "Major." In 1664 Sir T. Modyford, Governor of Jamaica, was instructed to pay £600 a year to his Lieut.-Governor and £300 a year to his Major. The latter was to discipline and command all the forces in the absence of and next to the Governor and Deputy-Governor. (W.I. Cal., p. 187.) Some years later the Major was styled Major-General. During the absence of Governor Hilton from Nevis in 1630-1 Mr. James Russell was elected by the settlers as their leader for a few months.



Monument in St. James's Church, Bristol, to Sir James Russell, Knt., of Nevis.

No mention is here made of Lady Russell, but an entry in the Church accounts shews that she was interred in the same tomb with her husband:—

1677, September 13th. Received for breaking ground in the chancel for y^e^ Lady Russell £1.

On the east wall of the chancel was formerly a tablet to Edward Buncombe of Montserrat, who died 11 Sep. 1712, aged 53. This was probably destroyed at the rebuilding of the church at the end of the eighteenth century.

He had been Speaker of the Assembly. His son-in-law Col. John Molineux matriculated from Trinity College, Oxford, 20 Feb. 1700-1, aged 16, and was alive in 1727, and his eldest son John Davis Molineux was also Speaker. The Molineux-Montgomerie family is now of Garboldisham Manor in Norfolk.

Edward Buncombe, late of Mountseratt, now of Bristol, Esq., by his will dated 26 Aug. and proved 30 Oct. 1712 (182, Barnes) devised his share of the manor of Goathurst, co. Somerset, and his plantation in Montserrat to his eldest son John. He names his wife Ann and his other children William, Charles, Joseph, Edward, Thomas, George, and Ann Buncombe, Mary wife of John Molineux of the same Island, and the latter's children, John Davis Molineux and Mary Molineux.

In the Crypt I saw some twenty years ago several memorial ledger stones, but at the recent restoration these disappeared, and at my last visit in 1909 the floor consisted of modern tiling. I noted a ledger here to Mungo Forbes of Jamaica, who died in 1807, aged 61. The Vicar writes, 22 May 1909, that when the crypt was restored there appears to have been no inscription to him remaining, but a careful record of all existing inscriptions was made.

BATH ABBEY CHURCH.

When the floor-slabs give no additional information, other than that on the wall tablets, I have omitted such inscriptions. The numbers refer to the Abbey List. "B.C." is for "Bath Chronicle."

North aisle: M.I. to SOPHIA LOUISA GOMM, dau. of Lieut.-Col. Gomm and Mary Alleyne Gomm (formerly Maynard). He was knighted 2 July 1794 at Guadaloupe. She died 1814.

His mother died at Penzance in 1796, leaving three sons and a dau. He commanded the troops in Jamaica 1839—42 and died 15 March 1875, aged 90. ("D.N.B.") I believe his tomb is in the churchyard of Rotherhithe. His aunt Miss Gomm left him the manor of Rotherhithe.

Notes and Queries.

WEST INDIA COMMITTEE.

I am anxious to trace the early history of the West India Committee. Can any of your readers assist me with information regarding it? The earliest minute-book of the Committee is dated 1769; and it would seem that in that year there existed a Committee of West India Merchants and a Committee of West India Planters. The full title of the West India Committee then, and for many subsequent years, was "The Standing Committee of West India Planters and Merchants."

ALGERNON E. ASPINALL.

The Colonial Office was in or about 1769 reorganized, and the Act of Parliament probably authorized the constitution of the Committee. (EDITOR.)

BARHAM'S HISTORY OF JAMAICA 1722.

This work, now in the British Museum (Sloan MS. 3918), consists of 140 small folio pages. The contents did not appear to me to contain much original matter. On the first page is the following heading:—

> "A most Correct, and particular Account of th . . . .*
> Island of Jamaica, From the Time of th . . . .*
> Spaniards first discovering and settling . . . .*
> it. Together With a full and succinct Account of the present > Government of it; as also, of all the Generals, > and Governours in Chief that have been appoin > ted to preside over the said Island, and all the other > Territories thereon depending, in America, &c.
> Wrote by Hen. Barham Sen^r F.R.S."

The history is carried down to the year 1722. Dr. Barham died soon after in 1726.

LONG'S JAMAICAN GENEALOGIES.

This volume, now in the British Museum (Add. MS. 27,968), contains various letters, pedigrees, and extracts from parish registers and wills relating to Jamaican families. The correspondence was mostly addressed to Charles Edward Long, a well-known West-Indian genealogist. The collection then apparently passed into the hands of Captain J. H. Lawrence Archer, author of "W.I. Monumental Inscriptions," and the Museum Trustees purchased it from him on 13 Feb. 1869.

Most of the numerous extracts from parish registers were made about 1830—35 by the late John Roby, author of the rare Histories of the parishes of St. Catherine and St. James (see ante I., 335), and were sent to C. E Long, then in London. Among the families noted are the following:—

Archbold.	Dawkins.	Gregory.	Marshal.

Barry.	Ellis.	Hals.	Morgan.
Beach.	Freeman.	Herbert.	Osborne.

BOOKPLATE OF JOHN OTTO BAIJER, ESQ.

There were two men of the above names in Antigua, first-cousins and of Dutch origin. The one, a Captain of the 38th Regiment, was sometime of Ham Common, co. Surrey, and died in Antigua 10 May 1817, aged 66. The other, a Colonel of Militia, resided for many years at St. Thomas, near Exeter, where he died 1 Nov. 1790, aged 67. PHILIPS CROSBY ESQR.

Admiral of the Red Squadron

Publd by J. Gold 103 Shoe Lane London Decr 1st 1805

Admiral Phillips Cosby.

This officer was second son of Col. Alexander Cosby, Lieut.-Governor of Nova Scotia, where he died 26 Dec. 1743, by Anne, dau. of Alexander Winnard of Annapolis. Alexander's younger brother, Col. William Cosby, was Governor of New York from 1732 till his death 10 March 1736. They were sons of Alexander Cosby of Stradbally in Queen's County, who died in 1694. The Admiral married in August 1792 Eliza, dau. of William Gunthorpe of Antigua, by whom he left no issue. He succeeded to the Stradbally estate on the death of his cousin Lord Sydney (Burke's "Landed Gentry"). The "G.M.," p. 92, records his death: "1808, Jan. 10. In Alfred-street, Bath, aged 80, Philip Cosby, esq. Admiral of the Red. He was at the Rooms the preceding evening and played at Whist." On his tablet in the south transept of the Abbey his age is given as 77 ("Antigua," ii., 243). The Burial Register has: "1808, Jan. 16. Admiral Philip Cosby" ("Genealogist," vi., 184). His aunt Elizabeth married Lieut.-General Richard Phillips, Governor of Nova Scotia, probably his godfather.

Letters from D. Walsh to J. Scott.

Antigua 15th August 1770.

Dear Sir

I have long since answer'd all your letters, your last was dated the 14th Decr, wherein you mentioned your conversation with Mr Wm Gunthorpe; thank God that matter is all over! We had a reappraisement the 10th instant, ballance in our favour £3520 . 10 . 7, which is paid in Cash & Bills of Exchn. I chose Messrs Jarvis & Christian, Messrs Jeremiah Blizard & Looby were the Appraisers for Mr Gunthorpe. The estate was deliver'd up in good order, the works compleat & fit for immediate service—the Negroes & Cattle in excellent condition.

Reappraisment	Negroes valued at	£4453 . 12 . 6
	Cattle	1092 . — . —
	Buildings &c.	4837 . 13 . 10
		£10383 . 6 . 4
Amount of the appraisment at the commencement of the Lease		6880 . 15 . 9
		3502 . 10 . 7
Overcast on the first appraisment in the original Schedule		18 . — . —
		£3520 . 10 . 7

Mr Gunthorpe has good reason to be pleased with this appraisment, for he has a valuable consideration for what he pays. I am perfectly satisfyed on my part. I paid for 24 New Negroes bought for Paynter's estate £825 . 10 Sterling which is at 67½ p̃ Ct £1382 . 14 . 3 Currency. I gave up in the reappraisment two valuable Negroes of my own (one of them a Cooper) valued at £250. I paid out of the reappraisment for a year's rent £940. I assure you this Affair has cost me a great deal of attention & trouble. I sold 20 Hhds. of Sugar this year at 40s & ship'd 130 & kept 80 for the refining house. I sent home to Messrs Oliver, William Warner's bills on Wm Gunthorpe for £1025 . 18 . 9 Sterling.

I believe a War not far off, & shall be glad of your opinion, if you think it advisable to sell out of the Stocks, before they may be too low.

My chief attention will now be to this Estate, & make all the Dung I can. I have an inclination to go home next year, but if I continue my health, may probably stay one year longer, & then if it is agreeable to the Family, shall be glad to rent upon English security, for it is running too great a wrisk to trust a Manager, who will think only of himself, & I dont know where to get a Man I wou'd confide in.

We are all well & join in love & compliment to you & our Friends. I am Dear Sir Your very affectionate humble servant

D. Walf'h.

This letter evidently relates to "Gunthorpes" and "Paynters," two adjoining estates in Antigua, owned by William Gunthorpe, who was at the time resident in London ("Antigua," ii., 39). The appraisement on entering upon a lease, and reappraisement on giving it up, any losses being paid by the tenant and any improvements by the landlord, was a very equitable arrangement.

De la Court Walsh, the letter writer, had been a Captain in the 38th Regiment, and married two wives in Antigua, dying in 1784 at Richmond, Surrey. In his will he names no family, but mentions Robert De La Court, Sen., Esq., of Ireland, and Robert's eldest son Walsh De La Court. (Ibid., ii., 5.)

Edward Warner and his brother-in-law John Johnson were merchants and partners in London, both holding much property in Antigua. James Scott, Esq., left the Island in 1760-1. There was a firm of Ledwell and Scott about 1780.

Antigua 18th Sep^{r} 1772.

Dear Sir

The 31st of last month we had the most violent Hurricane ever known; very few Estates, if any, but what have felt the effects of it, many of them quite destroyed, several white people kill'd & a number of Negroes. The King's Ships in English Harbor dismasted, & many Vefsels lost. We are in sad distrefs for want of Negro provision, what little Corn we have sells at 15/- a bushel. S^{t} Christophers has suffer'd as much if not more, & the other Islands, very considerably.

We lost part of our Dwelling house, our Refining house blown down & twenty Hhds. of Sugar destroyed, however we shall recover part of it, which must be manufactured anew, our Rum house down, & the South side of the Curing house, Boiling house strip'd, Sick house & Coopers Shop down, Trash house, Stock house, Coach house & Stables down, a large new Dove house quite gone, & our Store house strip'd. The house in Town which was compleated with glafs sashes new painted & a handsom stone wall, very much shatter'd & the wall down—little or no Lumber to be had. Provision extreme dear, & little of that. Our Canes whip'd to shreds & a great part of them broke short off; we have not suffer'd much that way, & I hope, if we have good weather, to make a tolerable Crop. The new stone building, containing the Offices, stood it very well & was of great service. We lost only one Negro. M^{r} Otto had four kill'd upon the spot. The Barracks & Hospital terribly shatter'd & the Gallery down. The strength of the Winds is incredible, they seemed to contend & battle together.

Thank God we are all well. & join in love & compliment to you and our Friends; all the Family are here at present, and talk of going home next year. If I find myself well. I will endeavour to put it off a year longer.

I fear we shall have bloody work at S^{t} Vincents. Six Companies of our Regiment are gone thither.

I wish you health and am truly Dear Sir

Your most obedient humble servant

D. Walfh.

(Addressed:) To James Scott Esq^{r}. to be forwarded by Thomas Oliver and Michael Lovell Esq^{rs}
Merchants. London.

(On double folio sheet, seal gone, in the possession of the Editor.)

Governor Sir Ralph Payne sent home a long letter describing the effects of this hurricane. The Court House was blown in, the Hospital at English Harbour levelled, the flagship and two frigates driven ashore, and the Governor's new study and papers blown away. Montserrat suffered £60,000 damage, but St. Kitts much less. The King gave a donation of £2000 to Antigua towards the fund for repairing losses. The 68th Regiment was to return to Europe the end of 1772. ("Antigua," i., cxxi.) Thos. Oliver was my great-great-grandfather and Michael Lovell was his first-cousin and partner; their counting-house was in Mark Lane.

SAMUELL FIERBRACE, CORPORALL IN CAPT. DAVICE'S COMPANY IN 1654.

This Samuell was the son of Bryan Firebrace, Merchant Tailor, of the City of London. His father went to Constantinople about 1640, leaving his wife with two children, Samuel and John, in London in poor circumstances. He died there intestate, administration being granted in London in May 1643 to Robert Cheeringe, a creditor. Her son Samuel was baptized 9 March 1634-5 at St. Margaret's, Westminster. He died in Jamaica, unmarried, and administration of his effects was granted to his mother Jane Arpe (who appears to have married again) 10 June 1657. He is therein described as "late at Jamaica in the States Service beyond sea, Batchelor."

I have been trying for many years to ascertain how and when my ancestor John Firebrace, uncle of the above Samuel, reached Barbados. It is possible he went out in the same expedition. He became a merchant and died in 1693. His will is in the Barbados Record Office.

COLLIER OF BARBADOS.

These notes were taken by myself in Barbados in 1904. Mehetabel Christian Collier was my great-grandmother, and I am anxious to find out their earlier history, and whether they belonged to the Dorsetshire family, as their arms lead one to suppose. The inscription was difficult to read, and it may be that Jane Miller, whose register entry does not tally with the tombstone, may have been daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Miller, and not Collier. William and Jane Collier of the tombstone seem to have been living at the same time as William and Mary Collier of the register. It is rather puzzling.

INSCRIPTION ON A TOMBSTONE IN THE CHURCHYARD OF ST. MICHAEL'S CATHEDRAL, BRIDGETOWN, BARBADOS.

Here lie the Bodies of | ABEL COLLIER who died | Aug. 4 1775 aged 34 years. | SAMUEL COLLIER | Sept. 12 1786 aged 50. | JAMES K. COLLIER | Ap. 7^th^ 1793 aged 50 | and JANE COLLIER Jan. 26 1800 | aged 67 all of this parish | Sons and Daughter of WILLIAM | and JANE COLLIER of | S^t^ Andrews Parish deceased |

* This is the castle which was a short time ago pulled down by Mr. Branch, who was the Government official in charge of the Island. I was this year informed by a friend who resided for three years in Barbuda that the castle was an ancient buccaneers' fort and that it was in need of repairs. I cannot confirm that, because there is no history of the Island, but it was evidently used by the Codringtons, the leaseholders, as a place of defence, and its destruction is to be deplored—a vandalism on which strong comments were made at the time in the W. Indian Committee Circular.

Also the bodies of WILLIAM | Son of aforesaid SAMUEL COLLIER | and ELIZABETH his wife who died in 1777 | aged 5 months. JANE MILLER | Feb. 14 1796 aged 20 years | daughter of JOSEPH and ELIZABETH | COLLIER and great-grand-daughter | of aforesaid WILLIAM and JANE | COLLIER. | ABEL BANNISTER . . . . | of aforesaid WILLIAM and JANE | COLLIER | Aged 22 years.

Other children of Samuel and Elizabeth Collier were:—

MEHETABEL CHRISTIAN COLLIER, born 4 July 1774; bapt. 21 July following at St. Michael's, married there 15 May 1790 William Newton Firebrace, Chief of the Legislative Council of Demerara. She died in Tobago in Aug. or Sept. 1822.

JAMES MORRIS COLLIER,* married 1 Sept. 1805 at St. Michael's Anne Lyne Firebrace, daughter of William Firebrace of St. Michael's, Barbadoes, and sister of the above-named William Newton Firebrace.

The Collier family bore for their Arms: Gules, on a chevron between three wolves' heads erased Argent, as many roses of the first, stalked and leaves vert. CREST.—A demi-unicorn Argent, armed, maned, and hoofed. (From the impression on a seal in my possession.)

In Burke's "General Armoury" these arms are ascribed to Collyer of Dorsetshire. (There is no evidence of this in Hutchins.—EDITOR.)

The following entries are from the Registers in the Record Office, Bridgetown, Barbados:—

Jane daughter of William and Mary Collier, b. Jan. 4, 1730-1; bapt. Aug. 20, 1733.

Mary daughter of William and Mary Collier, b. 17 Aug. 1733; bapt. Aug. 20, 1733.

Jane daughter of Elizabeth Miller, buried Feb. 15, 1796.

(Note.—The latter entry does not tally with the inscription on the tombstone.)

Any further information regarding the Collier Family anterior to 1790 would be welcome.

MORNE FORTUNE, ST. LUCIA.

On a monument at St. Lucia (being a pyramid eight feet square at its base and 15 feet 8 inches high) has been placed the following inscription:—

"Sacred to the memory of his Excellency Major-General George Mackie, C.B. Governor of St. Lucia, who died at the Pavilion, on the 8th of March 1831, in the 53d year of his age, after a severe illness of eight days, and within two months of his arrival in this colony. This tribute of respect to his worth as an amiable man and upright Governor, is erected by the staff officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of the Royal Artillery, Royal Engineers, 93d Highlanders, and 1st West India regiments, together with a large portion of the respectable inhabitants of the Island, A.D. 1831."

A similar tablet is placed on the opposite side of the monument to the memory of Major-Gen. Sir David Stewart, K.C.B., who died Governor of the same Island Dec. 28, 1829. ("G.M." for 1832, part ii., p. 94.)

See ante, II., 95.

SIR GEORGE THOMAS, BART., GOVERNOR OF THE LEEWARD ISLANDS.

Eldest son of Col. George Thomas of Antigua by Sarah, only dau. and heiress of Joseph Winthrop and granddau. of Samuel Winthrop the Quaker Deputy-Governor of that Island. His grandfather Major William Thomas of Bristol was a planter as early as 1665. George was born in 1694, but his baptism has not been found. He was a lad of only 13 at his father's death in 1707. In 1718 he inherited the estates of his uncle William Thomas, a wealthy planter who resided at Bushy Hall, Herts. He was returned as a Member of Assembly for Five Islands in 1716 and 1721, for Falmouth in 1723, and again for Five Islands in 1727. From a memo of 1738 it appears that he had been presented to the King by Lord Carteret on his appointment as Governor of Pennsylvania. This was appended to his letter, in which he petitioned against his removal from the Council Board of Antigua by Governor Mathew. In 1753 he was appointed Governor of the Leeward Islands, and after thirteen years of wise and just administration was, on his retirement in 1766, created a baronet and died in Upper Brook Street 31 Dec. 1774 in his 80th year.

He had purchased the estates of Yapton and Ratton in Sussex, and a marble monument was erected to his memory in Willingdon Church. A sketch of his character from the pen of his intimate friend the Hon. Col. Samuel Martin of Antigua, then in his 82nd year, appeared in the "Gent. Mag." for 1775, p. 421.

After making allowance for the fulsome eulogy of the period one may still accept Martin's statement that as a Governor he was a man of courage, energy, and integrity, and as a Chancellor impartial and just in his decrees.

Sir George S. M. Thomas, the present Baronet, owns the portrait of which he has kindly supplied the photograph.

I enclose a few inscriptions from St. Thomas's Church, Nevis, which may be of interest, together with a description of the Heraldry by Dr. Thomas.

[The Editor has added the notes].

In the church :—

Hic Situs est
THOMAS PYM armiger, vir dignissimus; In hac
Insulâ (Nevis) erat a Consiliis Regis Georgii II. fidelis
Regi Amator, Patriæ sincerus Amicus, peramans Maritus
Philanthropus: Terrestriam pro Cæleste, Vitam reliquit

Arms.— . . . . within an annulet a bull's head cabossed erased [Pym]; impaling . . . . On a chief . . . . three covered cups [Butler].

Crest.—On a knight's helmet a bird's head between two wings (? an eagle; it is partly covered by the flooring).

Col. Tho. Pym (son of Tho. and grandson of Col. Chas. Pym of Nevis) was a Member of Council. In 1738 he was in London when he executed a mortgage of his plantation of 286 acres, and the Pott Work of 100 acres in St. James's parish, and Parradice of 100 acres in St. Thomas's parish. He also made his will 16 Dec. 1738, proved 21 Feb. 1743 (51, Anstis). By his wife Elizabeth, daughter of Col. Tho. Butler, he left no issue. She remarried John Dasent, and he died 1754. These Pyms were merchants of Bristol, trading with the W.I. I have not been able to prove their relationship to the Pyms of Brymore, co. Som., though both families were connected with the W.I., and the arms on the above ledger are those of the latter, the crest being different.

On a large marble slab :—

Here are the remains of WILLIAM JONES, Esq:
who departed this life the 21st day of May 1753, Aged 48 Years.
His Widow, being desirous to shew her Respect to her deceased Husband, hath directed the following just Inscription.
Mr Jones, altho' without any advantage of a paternal Estate or Education, took early care to forward himself in the world by the Recommendation of his own Behaviour.
And so well succeeded in Quality of a Merchant as to become the most considerable one in this Island: during which Time, he maintained a fair character, liv'd in good Credit, and, by keeping ye best of Company, as well as by reading the best of Books, he had acquir'd such a competent knowledge as render'd him very useful to the public, whilst living, and dy'd a worthy Member of the Council of Nevis.

Arms.— . . . . A stag statant. . . . .
Crest.—(Hidden by the flooring).
Sable, a buck passant argent, Jones of Esthall, Oxfordshire. (Burke's "Armory.")

A Rev. Wm. Jones married, 18 July 1776, Frances Williams, spinster, at St. John's, Nevis. He was buried 18 March 1800 at St. Paul's. I do not know if he was related to the above.

1813, July 12. At Bristol, Frances, widow of Rev. Wm. Jones, of the I. of N. ("G.M.," 93.)

On a large plain stone slab :—

ELIZABETH PETERSEN.
Born the 15th March 1727
And departed this Life
the 1st November 1793.

She was a daughter of Wm. Peterson of the "Spring" estate, gent., by Eliz., daughter of Michael Williams, Esq. Anthony Peterson was entered in the Census of 1677-8. Her grandfather, Anthony Peterson, was named in a deed of 1737, and John Peterson, Chief Justice of St. Vincent, who died in 1846, was her nephew.

Her arms were: Gules, on a cross, between four lions rampant, five eagles displayed.
Crest.—An eagle displayed.

JACOBUS (the remainder worn away).

Arms.— . . . . On a bend three cygnets close between two mullets in chief (the rest defaced—there may have been a third mullet in base).

This is undoubtedly the stone over the vault of Colonel Sir James Russell, Knt., M. of Council 1672, whose will was dated at Nevis 16 July 1687, and proved 4 July 1688 (99, Exton). There is a tablet in St. James's Church, Bristol, to his uncle, Sir James Russell, 1674, with the above arms thereon. There should be a third mullet in base. (See pedigree in "Antigua," iii., 60.)

The coat is given in Awbrey's "History of North Wilts."

In the churchyard :—

D. CHRISTIANA BROME D.
ROBERTI HELME filia, died
February 25, 1765.

ARMS.—In a lozenge . . . . On a bend three pheons . . . . [HELME].

Robert Helme was a merchant at Nevis in 1676, and later agent for the R. African Co. up to his death in 1685. Sarah his widow and executrix made her will 4 Oct. 1687, proved 1690 (72, Dyke), but mentions no children. Her brother, Capt. Wm. Freeman, was a noted planter of St. Kitts, and later of Fawley Court, near Henley.

1705, July 8, Mr. Tho. Helme of Gillingham, co. Dorset, Gent., only brother and h.-at-l. of Rob. H., late of Nevis. Letter of attorney to Mr. Ph. Brome of N., Gent., and Mr. Rob. H. of N., merchant, to recover all sums owing at the Leeward I. ("Antigua," i., 272.)

Philip Brome, a Member of Council of Nevis (whose will is given in "Antigua," iii., 414, by mistake as Browne), in his will dated 8 Dec. 1705, proved 25 Sep. 1708 (196, Barrett), says: To my wife Christian Brome, formerly Chapman, on whom I have settled £3000, £200 c., furniture, my plate left with Mrs. Mary Helme of London, and 6 negroes.

Eliz. Helme of Gillingham, co. Dorset, spinster, perhaps granddaughter of Robert, in her will dated 12 May 1787, proved 7 Sep. 1792 (470, Fountain), demised her moiety of the plantations and negroes in Nevis to her niece Grace Cox. The abovesaid Robert had a brother, Major Wm. Helme of Antigua, a Member of Council in 1691, and dead before 1703, who left by Mary Baxter his wife a daughter and heiress Maria, whose arms, as above, are on a shield of pretence on the stone in St. John's Church, Nevis, to her husband John Pinney, Esq.

The arms of Helme of Worcestershire are: Argent, on a bend Sable three pheons of the first. (Burke's "Armory.")

In the churchyard :—

RICARDUS ABBOTTUS aged 64
October 23^{d} 1724 and Carolus his son.
(Latin inscription with English translation.)

ARMS.— . . . . A chevron between three pears . . . .
CREST.— . . . . A nag's head erased.

1660, Dec. 27, John Abbott, senior, signed an Act of Assembly. Lieut. John Abbott (probably a son) was entered in the Census of 1678, and was a Member of Assembly 1678, 1682, 1684, and as "Capt." took his seat at the Council on 30 March 1685. He petitioned for a fixed salary as Coroner on 15 April 1686, and after that date his name no longer appears in the Colonial Calendars. A Mrs. Hester Abbott was separately entered in the Census of 1678, and was probably the widow of the John Abbott, sen^{r}.

Richard Abbott (probably son of the second John) was first elected to the Assembly in 1688, and as "Major" was returned for the N.W. Division in 1693, for the parish of St. Thomas in 1694-5, and was sworn of the Council on 30 April 1696. Gov^{r} Codrington objected to his being omitted from the new list 14 Dec. 1699, and the King directed Sir Wm. Mathew on 15 May 1704 that he should be continued. As "Col." he was entered in the Census of 1707-8. He was appointed Brigadier-General of the Leeward I. on 1711-12. In a deposition of 19 Sep. 1715 his age was given as about 50. In 1717 he petitioned to purchase his leasehold plantation of 250 acres French lands at St. Kitts. In 1720, 1722 and 1723 he was President, no doubt up to his death.

Another Rich[d] Abbott, "jun[r]" in 1720 (perhaps son of the last-named), who had married before 1720 Eliz., daughter of James Bevon, Esq., of Nevis, Speaker in 1699, and left three daughters, Eliz., Frances and Anne, as "Major" was appointed to the Council 6 Oct. 1722, and was apparently residing in the parish of St. Thomas when his daughter Eliz. was buried in 1733. An Edward Abbott was recommended for the Council in 1741. I have no later notes of this family, and there are no wills at Somerset House. The above arms are those of Abbott of Guildford in Surrey, and if search were made I think the first settler John would be found to be a cadet of that family. The "nag's head" should probably be a unicorn's.

TRINITY, PALMETTO POINT, ST. KITTS.

The four following M.I. in the churchyard were copied by Mr. N. Darnell Davis in 1879:—

1. John Manning, 1725. (See Vol. I., 347.)

2. Here lyeth interr'd, the body of JOHN BOURRYAU,* Esq[r] who was born the 11[th] day of Oct. 1662, and departed this life the 6[th] day of August 1728, aged 66 years.

* He was entered in the Census of 1707-8 as aged 48, and was probably father of Zachariah Bourryau of London, merchant, formerly of St. Kitts, who purchased Blighborough Manor in Lincolnshire in 1747, and died 24 March 1752, leaving issue. Will [59, Bettesworth]. His arms as quartered by the Luards were: Gules, a chevron between three estoiles pierced Arg.

3. Here lyeth interred the body of M[rs] JANE GUILMEN a daughter of M[r] ZACHARIAH & MARY PRICE deceased, who departed this life y[e] 28[th] of Sept[r] 1722, in the 44[th] year of her age.

Here lyeth also four of their children.

.... Powers.

"One Mr. Powers, (a Cantabrigian) who was a Predecessor of mine, in the Rectory of St. John's at Nevis, wrote a Poem called, The Sugar-Cane, which was looked upon there as a curious Work, and as such (after his death) sent home hither to his Relations: But I believe it was never printed." (Rev. Wm. Smith's "Natural History of Nevis," 310.)

William Smith.

As son of Josiah S. of Yarmouth, Norfolk, pleb., matriculated from Queen's Coll. 27 March 1707, aged 17, B.A. 16 Oct. 1710 (as Gabriel in Cat. Grads.); perhaps Vicar of Trowse, Norfolk, 1710. (Foster.)

He went out to the Leeward Islands 3 Feb. 1715-16 (Fothergill).

In the above work, "A Natural History of Nevis," in eleven letters from the Rev. Mr. Smith, sometime Rector of St. John's at Nevis and now R. of St. Mary's in Bedford, 1745, 8vo, he writes: "I went in 1722 to Yarmouth in Norfolk the place of my birth (155), Queen's-College, in Oxford of which I was a Member (158)," and gives a copy of his Institution to St. John's, Nevis (214), as following:—

Monumental Inscriptions in England relating to West Indians.†

"F.B.J." stands for "Farley's Bristol Journal."

CLIFTON CHURCH, BRISTOL.

"In memory of CONSTANTINE PHIPPS Esq., who departed this life at Clifton, universally lamented, the 11th June 1797, in the 51st year of his age."

From a letter sent in 1832 by the Rev. Mr. Anstey to Col. P. Phipps it appears that Constantine Phipps, formerly of St. Kitts, was buried at Clifton on 19 June 1797 in the chancel, and Mr. Anstey enclosed the above inscription.

I did not find this stone, so it has probably disappeared. See "The Life of Col. Pownoll Phipps," published 1894 for private circulation; also ante I., 127, for the M.I. at Bath to Eliza his widow.

Major Phipps writes that letters have been preserved to the above Constantine Phipps from Justinian Casamajor written in 1791—98 from London, referring to mortgages on Constantine Phipps' estate in St. Kitts; also one letter to Constantine Phipps' widow Eliza Tierney, whom he married 13 May 1771. Apparently Constantine Phipps leased his plantation to Mr. Rawlins, who was dead in 1798.

On a marble monument in the Church:—

To the Memory of Mrs. ELIZABETH BLENMAN, (Wife of WILLIAM BLENMAN, Efq; of the Iſland of Barbadoes, and one of the Daughters of JOSEPH DOTIN, Efq; of the ſaid Iſland) who died in this Village on the 10th Auguſt 1763, in the 36th Year of her Age & the 15th of her Marriage, leaving Four Sons & Two Daughters. (Several lines of eulogy follow.)

ARMS.—Gules, two lions passant in pale Or. (Rudder's "Gloucestershire," 382.)

This monument was probably destroyed when the old church was pulled down. The arms are those of Dotin.

Jonathan Blenman was Attorney General in 1726-7 and Judge of the Admiralty in 1734. According to his book-plate he bore: CREST.—A dexter arm holding a scroll. ARMS.—Per chevron engrailed Azure and Argent, two lozenges in chief, a bee in base; impaling, Argent, three daggers.

* Edward Brazier, son of Edward B. of St. Christopher's, W.I., Esq., matriculated from Wadham Coll. 22 May 1792, aged 18: B.A. 1796, M.A. 1800. He was subsequently Rector of St. Tho., Middle I., St. Kitts, 1811—18. (See ante, 238.)

1826, Aug. 26. At Clifton, Lucius Cary, esq. of Jamaica. ("G.M.," 284.)

In St. Catharine's Cathedral is a stone to Col. Theodore Cary, who died 26 June 1683, æt. 63. (Roby, 19.) In Vivian's "Visitations of Devon" (i., 152) he is not given, but his eldest brother Sir Henry was aged 7 in 1620, when the Visitation was held, and as Theodore was born later than 1620 his name was, of course, not entered. See ante, p. 59, for his marriage, 15 June 1676, with Dorothy Wale. "Theod." Cary, son of George Cary of Cockington, Devon, gent., was of Queen's Coll., Oxford, matric. 29 April 1642, aged 18, of Corpus Christi Coll. 20 May 1642 (Foster). This would give the year of his birth as about 1624. The age of 63 on the gravestone may easily have been noted in error for 60. The Registers of Cockington unfortunately only commence in 1628. Lucius was a favourite name in Viscount Falkland's family.

The Rev. Henry Francis Cary, son of William Cary, of "Gibraltar, West Indies" (sic), B.A. Christ Church, Oxford, Translator of Dante, etc., died 14 Aug. 1844, aged 72, and was buried in Westminster Abbey; he is stated by Col. Chester to have been born at Gibraltar 6 Dec. 1772. Of course, "Gibraltar, West Indies," was quite good enough for an Oxford man, when the geography of the West Indies was little thought of. Is there not, however, a Gibraltar in Jamaica, and was there a Wm. Cary of that Island? The Rev. H. F. Cary, moreover, had a son Wm. Lucius Cary.

North-east portion of the churchyard:—

IN CHANCERY. LORD HEATHFIELD v. DANIEL MACNAMARA.

Bill states that William Elliott about 1768 employed defdt as a counsel to place out £26,000, and defdt in 1768 so lent to James Hussey of Montserrat, Esq., who was brother-in-law of deft., £4000 on security of certain plantations, and by lease, etc., of 14 and 15 July 1768 Jas. Hussey, the Father of s[d] Jas. H., for £4000 were assigned to s[d] defd[t] in T. for s[d] W. E. as collateral security. S[d] £4000 was not repaid but extension of time was allowed and int. was paid till July 1778, and then defd[t] recommended W. E. to employ Tho. W[m] Elliott died May 1780 and app. Lord Heathfield, plaintiff's late father, and pltf. Ex'ors. Pltf. can get no account of money from Tho. Meade, who arrived in England in 1793, and pltf. has discovered that Jas. H. was only tenant for life and afterwards died abroad insolvent, and there were prior charges on s[d] est., and the mortg. to W[m] Elliott had never been recorded in the Sec[ys] office, and defd[t] having a claim v. Jas. Hussey the Father in right of his defendant's wife, dau. of s[d] Jas. H. the father, obt. judgm[t] v. Jas. H. the s. and seized all slaves and sold them for £5000 st. to Tho. Meade in return for annuity of £500 to defd[t] and his wife. Defd[t] at his house in Lincoln's Inn Fields refuses satisfaction.

Further Answer of Defendant.

Does not know where the 4 bonds are. Defd[t] had a prior lien of £3000 secured by bond of 25 Nov. 1757 exec. by s[d] Jas. Hussey the F. to Col. Michael Browne (a T. of defd[t]), being part of portion of defendant's wife who was dau. of s[d] Jas. H. the F., and Jas. H. the s. defd[t] lent £750 and the charge of £3750 was secured by deed of 24 and 25 May 1762 and s[d] W[m] E. knew of this, and the only deed he has with Tho.
